—IKE WINS 75-13 VICTORY—

Foreign Trade Bill Is Passed

Legislation Empowers President To Slash Tariffs To Spur World Commerce; To Conference

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate Wednesday night overwhelmingly passed President Eisenhower's foreign trade bill, empowering him to cut American tariffs to spur world commerce.

Approval came on a 75-13 roll call vote.

It was a big victory for the President on what he has called a key measure in the effort to bolster the free world against Communism. The Senate beat back several attempts to alter the legislation from the floor.

Goes To Conference

The bill now goes to conference with the House but the President is assured of success on these major provisions since they have been approved by both branches:

1. An extension of the 21-year-old Reciprocal Trade Agreements Law to June 30, 1958. The present act expires June 12 this year.

2. New power to cut tariffs 15 per cent in three successive 5 per cent steps over the extension period. He may use these to win trade concessions from other nations.

This gives the President new tariff-cutting powers for the first time in 10 years.

Amendments Beaten

The Senate rejected a number of amendments both to add new restrictions to the bill and to liberalize it.

They included an attempt by Sen. O'Mahoney (D-Wyo) to require congressional approval of all trade agreements before they could take effect. This was beaten on a voice vote.

Rejected on a 73-12 rollcall was an amendment by Sen. Morse (D-Ore) under which either House of Congress could veto a trade agreement.

The Senate also turned down 67-21 an amendment by Sen. Douglas (D-Ill) to strike from the bill provisions broadening the escape clause under which industries may seek relief from increased imports.

Both Shouted Down

Sen. Malone (R-Nev) offered two last gap amendments but both were shouted down. One would have extended the act for only one year, to June 12, 1956. The other would have limited the President's power to negotiate trade pacts to Western Hemisphere nations only.

The Senate was in session a little more than 12 hours Wednesday to finish up work on the bill. In all, it defeated 11 amendments and adopted only the one minor clarifying language change.

Senate conferees named to work with House members on the bill were: Sens. Byrd (D-Va), George (D-Ga), Kerr (D-Okla), Millikin (R-Colo) and Martin (R-Pa).

On final passage of the measure, 38 Republicans and 37 Democrats lined up for it and seven Republicans and six Democrats voted against it.

Nebraskans In Favor

Nebraska's Republican Senators Curtis and Hruska voted with the majority on extending the trade agreements program.

9 Feared Killed In Sea Crash

. . . Air Tanker Down

REYKJAVIK, Iceland (AP) — A U.S. Air Force Flying Tanker carrying nine men caught fire in the air and crashed Wednesday in the stormy Atlantic Ocean.

Rescue planes reported sighting a big oil slick and what appeared to be wreckage of the plane, but said there was no sign of survivors.

U.S. Air Force headquarters in London said the plane belonged to the 310th Air Refueling Squadron, normally stationed at Salina, Kan. The squadron now is on an overseas tour of duty.

The Air Force said a distress signal from the plane reported the craft caught fire about 90 miles off Iceland's coast. The plane was bound from Keflavik, Iceland, to Prestwick, Scotland.

The Air Force's full Air-Sea Rescue Team was ordered into action, an Air Force spokesman said.

The plane, a KC97 — the military version of the Boeing Stratocruiser —had been flying in a formation of bombers on a training mission when the engine burst into flames.

The accompanying planes reported seeing the plane break away from the formation and circle down through an overcast, pouring out a trail of smoke.

Jury Frees Ferrell

Lawyer Acquitted In Phenix City Murder

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP) — A jury that offered "apologies to no one" broke a 13-hour deadlock Wednesday and acquitted ousted Prosecuting Atty. Arch Ferrell of the murder of the crime fighter who had sworn to clean up Phenix, Ala.

Ferrell

In a tense, crowded courtroom ringed by extra squads of police and sheriff's deputies, jury foreman Harry C. Watkins read the verdict after 13 hours and 11 minutes of deliberation.

Ferrell was so shaken that he had to be helped from his seat and and led into the chambers of presiding Judge J. Russell McElroy. His attractive brunette wife who had testified in his behalf accompanied the 38-year-old defendant out of the courtroom.

Ferrell was the second of three former public officials to be tried for the murder last June 18 of A. L. Patterson, the Democratic nominee for attorney general who had vowed to rid Phenix City of its reign of racketeering.

No Apologies

But he was the first to go free.

Ex-Chief Deputy Sheriff Albert Fuller, who rose to power along with Ferrell during the heyday of vice, was convicted in the same courtroom March 11 and sentenced to life in prison.

Former Atty. Gen. Si Garrett, the man Patterson would have succeeded, is under treatment for a mental disorder and his trial has not been set.

The jury foreman, reading the verdict, said "we have prayed over this and we offer apologies to no one."

Ferrell, recovering his composure after 30 minutes in Judge McElroy's office, came out smiling with Mrs. Ferrell on his arm.

He read this statement:

"Twelve courageous and honest men have confirmed my innocence which I personally have always known.

"I am deeply gratified and shall always be grateful for the justice which I have received."

Today's Chuckle

A mountaineer saw his first avocado in the general store and seemed quite puzzled by it. "Want to try one?" asked the storekeeper. "Nope," was the reply. "I got so many tastes now I can't satisfy, I ain't aiming to take on any more."

Rickey Nickelson, not quite two years old, gives a smile of relief as he rubs his aching foot to see if he still has all his piggies after the fire department freed him from his pipe trap. Rickey, 21-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Nickelson of 1645 West South, got his foot stuck in the pipe while playing in the yard at home. Rickey was stuck in the sewer line connection for about an hour before firemen, using a wire coat-hanger, wiggled the foot free. (Staff Photo By Bob Gorham.)

Gravy Train At End Of Line

. . . High-Ups Lose Rhine Castles

By GEORGE BOULTWOOD

BONN, Germany (Thursday) (AP)—West Germany joins the ranks of independent nations today, and a big economy ax swings down on U.S. forces that have occupied this country for 10 years with British and French troops.

The big change comes automatically as soon as British and French high commissioners deposit their documents ratifying treaties restoring sovereignty and permitting Allied troops to remain only as defense forces. The United States and Germany already have taken this step.

"Now the gravy train has come to the end of the line," commented one veteran of the occupation.

Strict Economy

This is what it will mean for the Allied forces:

Strict economy is the order of the day. No more castles on the Rhine for Allied high-ups. The Allies' dependents already have lost some occupation frills, such as vast numbers of cheap domestic servants.

Allied troops in general will be required to observe German law. The Allied courts that tried their various nationals for offenses have faded out. Military offenses will still be tried by courts-martial, but the soldiers will be liable to civil suits in connection with road accidents and similar matters. The soldiers also can be sued for maintenance of illegitimate children born after sovereignty. They previously were immune from such suits, although there were 100,000 such children.

Retain Some Privileges

The soldiers will be able to keep their most valuable privileges—the right to buy customs-free goods in the servicemen's stores. This meanes continued access to cheap cigarettes, coffee, tea, liquor, perfumes and other luxuries at prices far below German costs. But rations on some of these items have been cut at German request, such as the present limit of 10 packs of cigarettes weekly for U.S. soldiers instead of 15. They can buy no package coffee if they live in barracks.

The soldiers will still be able to drive their private automobiles on cheap quartermaster gasoline, and the cars will be free of the stiff German horsepower tax.

More Austere Lives

On the whole, American, British, French and Belgian forces have been told to lead much more austere lives. They will serve as defense forces under NATO, which will need its money for new airfields and other vital requirements.

For the West Germans, the sovereignity they have long been seeking will mean this:

They will no longer have to contribute a big chunk of the cost of Allied occupation for such plush items as fancy living quarters, sports and entertainment.

NATO To Decide

Until the end of this year the Germans will continue to pay 600 million marks ($142,800,000) a month toward the cost of maintaining Allied forces. After that NATO will decide what West Germany's share will be. The bulk of it will be absorbed increasingly in Germany's rearmament. A total of nine billion marks ($2,142,000,000) has been alloted by West Germany for defense for the first year.

All these changes which mean so much to the West Germans and the soldiers, if not to the world at large, will be launched by a simple ceremony today at Schaumburg Palace, Chancellor Konrad Adenauer's office. It is there the French and British high commissioners will deposit their ratifying documents at noon. The exact hour and minute will be precisely recorded, because at that moment some 60 Allied laws and 130 ordinances become invalid.

Reds Back Down On Demands

Hopes For May Treaty Signing Are Boosted

VIENNA, Austria (AP)—The Soviet Union Wednesday abandoned its previous insistence on including a refugee repatriation article in the Austrian state treaty. This move raised still higher the Western hopes that the treaty will be ready for signing in mid-May.

The surprise Soviet move was reported by diplomatic officials of two delegations attending the five-nation conference of ambassadors.

The ambassadors representing the Soviet Union, Britain, France and the United States, with Austria's foreign minister sitting in, are shaping the treaty's final terms.

Good Progress

Informed sources said good progress was made during the day. They made it clear, however, that Russia and the West still have to agree on thorny reparations and foreign oil investments issues before the treaty can be signed by the Big Four foreign ministers later this month.

Diplomats reported Soviet Ambassador Ivan I. Ilyichev accepted an Austrian proposal—supported by the West—to drop completely the long-disputed Article 16.

The article would have allowed unlimited numbers of Soviet repatriation teams to enter Austria, once it had won its independence, to quiz and screen an estimated 48,000 refugees from communism.

Public Power Reorganization Bill Passes First Unicam Floor Test

By ARCH DONOVAN
Star Staff Writer

A bill which will make possible complete reorganization of public power in Nebraska passed its first test on the floor of the Legislature Thursday with practically no debate and little opposition.

The measure, LB 501, was submitted following a series of meetings at Columbus at which all districts both large and small were said to have come to agreement on its provisions. It permits mergers of districts which were prohibited in the original act.

Proponents argued that it was difficult, under the present plan of districting, to get the best possible interest rates on financing and that inclusion of the word "irrigation" in the name of districts is a handicap in sale of bonds.

Sen. K. W. Peterson, Sargent, introducer of the bill, explained that the districts know best how to solve their problems. He explained the new setup under consideration but said that detailed plans have not been worked out.

He said that from Grand Island west to the break in the power lines, the Platte Valley Public Power District would handle generation, distribution and transmission functions. East from Grand Island, he said Consumers Public Power District would merge with the Nebraska Public Power System to form a new Nebraska public power district to handle all functions in the area.

The Loup River district would confine its activities to strictly generating power and join the Central Nebraska (Tri-County) District in that function for the area east of Grand Island.

Consumers activities in the western one-third of the state would remain in their present status although the name would be changed to the western division of the parent company operating in east Nebraska.

Under the new organizational set-up, Peterson said, it would be possible to solve controversies about who should build additional generating facilities and enable the state to keep pace with the expanding requirements for electrical energy.

With the possibility of the state receiving approval for use of atomic power for generating electricity, he said the new districts would be able to determine who should contract with the government.

Only a few "no's" were audible on the voice vote advancing the bill. Sen. Morrison was the only senator to voice any objections.

"No one knows just what the extent of this reorganization will be and what effect it will have on the citizens of the state," Morrison said. "The people don't understand, much less the Legislature. I would like to have a better understanding before I vote for this measure."

Sen. Robert Brower, Fullerton, replied that the districts have the best interests of the state in mind. "I think that we can trust them," he explaned.

Explaining that he considered Sen. Morrison's fears groundless, Brower continued, "If we withhold our consent until every detail is hammered out on an anvil, we will hamstring them."

The bill expands the power of the people by providing a wider voting base for directors to include those localities receiving wholesale as well as retail power.

An amendment by Sen. Robert Perry of Lincoln, preventing directors of districts from delegating authority was adopted. He charged that past litigation was caused by delegation of power.

The Legislature also advanced LB 505 which makes a uniform fiscal reporting date for all state agencies and LB 348.

'When She's Better' Mary Lou Collins Will Have Her Class-Made Scrapbook

A scrapbook is being kept for Mary Lou Collins.

The small, eight-year-old tot isn't expected to see it for some time, though.

She's been unconscious for the past 17 days—since she was the victim of an accident at 17th and K Streets. And Thursday morning her condition was still called critical.

This week, Mary Lou's 43 classmates in the second grade at St. Mary's Cathedral School started the scrapbook. The teacher, Sister Mary St. Walter, said it was for Mary Lou to enjoy "when she gets better."

Sister said the girls and boys cut out pictures from magazines, then write their own captions for the descriptions. "They're mostly humomous," the teacher added.

The students have also been going to daily Mass and Communion for Mary Lou and each day sal special prayers in school.

Mary Lou, the daughter of Mrs. Mary Collins of 2026 J, suffered a severe head injury in the accident April 18.

A-Blast Set Again

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (INS) — The weather got the approval of atomic experts Wednesday night, and the big atomic bomb of "Operation Cue" was scheduled to be detonated at 6:10 a.m. (CST) Thursday over Doom Town.

Shooting of the long delayed blast still was subject, however, to a 4 a.m. weather evaluation. The new alert, fourth since April 26, sent newsmen and observers scurrying to buses for another 75-mile trek to frigid Yucca Flat, north of Las Vegas.

Ike Favors Wait-And-See Formosa Policy

No Child To Lack Vaccine

. . . President Pledges

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower outlined Wednesday a "wait and see" policy for dealing with Communist China on a possible cease-fire in the Formosa Strait region.

The President also told a news conference this country has no present intention of stationing big or permanent land forces on Formosa to help Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek defend that Chinese Nationalist stronghold.

And he said he expected the Chinese Reds to provide ample clues as to their intentions if they strike at the offshore islands of Matsu and Quemoy. This country has indicated its readiness to defend those islands if the Reds attack them as a prelude to moving against Formosa.

Almost Casual

Eisenhower was brief and almost casual in his discussion of the Pacific situation. His manner as much as his words suggested he may regard the tension there as having relaxed somewhat in recent days.

Plainly, the big thing on his mind Wednesday was the Salk polio vaccine—its proper distribution and safe use. He volunteered the comment that he's strongly for the present voluntary distribution system. But the White House announced later authority will be asked for the government to buy up vaccine if necessary to put it where it's needed. The President pledged that no child will ever go without the vaccine because of lack of money.

Prepared To Buy All

President Eisenhower proposed, if necessary, to buy all commercial output of the Salk polio vaccine.

He told his news conference:

"There will never be a child in the United States denied this emergency protection for want of ability to pay. Of that we are absolutely certain. . . .

"It is going to be distributed equitably to every state in the union."

Eisenhower made those two flat pledges.

The National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis is now providing free vaccine for the mass inoculations in the schools, beginning with first and second graders. Other youngsters are getting shots as the supply permits.

Cost Increase Said Reason For Postal Rate Hike Request

By ELLIS RALL
Star Staff Writer

Assistant Postmaster General Albert J. Robertson of Washington, D. C., in Lincoln for the 45th annual convention of the Nebraska Branch of the National League of Postmasters said Wednesday night that a big increase since 1947 in postal costs has made it necessary to request an increase in postal rates.

"The fiscal 1954 postal deficit of 399 million dollars was approximately one-eighth of the national deficit for that year," he said.

Robertson said that legislation has been requested to provide 343 million dollars in new postal revenue.

"During this current fiscal year," he said, "aside from the pending wage increases proposed and other employee benefits, it is estimated that the total deficit will be down to approximately 315 million dollars."

Last year, Robertson said, the postal deficit was decreased from 619 million dollars to 399 million through increased efficiency and streamlining of postal operations.

Speaking of the members of the state league, Robertson said that post masters handled their duties and responsibilities in a manner that reflected credit on the postal service.

Robertson said the goal of all postal employees is to give the American people one thing—better postal service.

Abut 175 postmasters are expected to attend the three-day meeting. Committee meetings and registration was held Wednesday afternoon.

Raymond Stevens of Orchard, president of the league, will preside during Thursday's sessions. Included on the program are Mayor Clark Jeary who will welcome the group. Others speaking Thursday are: Robert E. Ward, 2nd vice-president of the National League of Postmasters; Carl M. Landis, regional suggestions officer; A. H. Sonntag, deputy director, 9th U.S. Civil Service Region and J. L. Spears, director of the regional accounting office.

Election of officers is scheduled for Thursday afternoon.

Members will attend a banquet Thursday evening. Robertson will speak.

Demo Governors Jump On Ike For 'Complacency'

WASHINGTON (AP) — Democratic governors jumped on the Eisenhower administration Wednesday for what they called complacency toward unemployment and neglect and indifference toward farmers.

Gov. G. Mennen Williams of Michigan said that "somebody is going to call us harbingers of gloom and doom." But he said dairy farmers in Michigan are "losing their shirts," 5 per cent of the workers are out of jobs, and bankruptcies and business failures have increased since the GOP took over in Washington.

Gov. Averell Harriman of New York, said the Republicans "talk about good business, but it's good business for big business." He said manufacturing in his state is going up but employment isn't.

Gov. Hugh L. White of Mississippi declared that because of restrictions clamped on cotton production "chaotic conditions have been brought about in the farm life of my state," with more farmers than ever before worried about how to make a living.

Constructive

Gov. Orville L. Freeman of Minnesota suggested Democratic governors ought not to sit back and watch "the administration break its arm patting itself on the back." He said they should demand something constructive from the Republicans and if they don't get it, "see what can be done about removing them."

"Maybe that's our job," he said. "It is our job," Democratic National Chairman Paul M. Butler agreed.

The governors set off the bombardment at a conference called by Butler to talk over 1956 election prospects, party strategy, and federal-state issues.

Fourteen of the 27 Democratic governors showed up. They had stayed behind for a two-day huddle after a conference of all governors, arranged by President Eisenhower, for briefing by federal officials on foreign and domestic problems.

There will be a session for clerks at 10:30 a.m. and a general conference for clerks and board members at 1:30 p.m.

Other area conferences will be held at North Platte on May 10, Norfolk on May 12, Omaha on May 17, Alliance on May 19, and Grand Island on May 24.

—Boundary Trouble—

Missouri Solon Wants 'Treaty' With Nebraska

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo. (AP) — Missouri and Nebraska should fight out their border battle before the United States Supreme Court, Sen. Clayton W. Allen (R) of Rockport, Mo. said Wednesday.

Allen said "Nebraska is encroaching upon the sovereignty of the state of Missouri" and laying claim to several thousand acres of rich farmland in the northwest portion of this state.

He asked the Senate to direct the attorney general to file suit in the U.S. Supreme Court.

He blamed the 56 miles of meandering Missouri River bordering Atchison and Holt counties for the trouble. It changed course so often, he said, that things have gotten downright confused.

Many landowners have to pay taxes to both states, he said, because if they pay to only one state the other state will declare the land forfeited because of nonpayment of taxes.

Missouri courts consistently hold that the land is in Missouri, he said, and Nebraska courts just as consistently hold that the land is in Nebraska.

Once the high court decides the legal boundary, Allen said, "then we could make a treaty with Nebraska and really get the whole thing straightened out.

Allen's proposal was laid over until later under Senate rules.

BAO DAI INDICTED IN VIET NAM

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — Seven hundred municipal and provincial officials from all parts of South Viet Nam met Wednesday to decide whether Chief of State Bao Dai should be stripped of his powers or deposed.

By car, truck, plane and horse-drawn cart they poured into Saigon for a "States General" Assembly, the nearest thing to a popular National Congress Viet Nam has ever had. They were in all kinds of costume, from the stylish white sharkskin suits of Saigon to the blue silk jackets and red headcloths of the Cham tribes.

Before them were two proposals, both indicting the Chief of State who has remained in France a year while his country was beset with war and postwar problems and torn by civil strife.

The first, drawn up last week by a National Revolutionary Committee, would oust Bao Dai.

The second, apparently sponsored by Premier Ngo Dinh Diem, would oblige the ex-Emperor to yield his powers.

First Christian Church Launches $150,000 Drive

Members of the First Christian Church launched a $150,000 building fund campaign Wednesday evening at a dinner in the Student Union.

The fund is to construct a new sanctuary adjacent to the present building. The new structure will be used for educational purposes.

Members of the church will conduct solicitations for one week. Dr. Charles H. Arnold is general committee chairman.

L. J. Davis is chairman of initial gifts committee, Lloyd Dort, special gifts chairman, Dr. Alton Pardee is in charge of teams and Roy Osborn heads the training committee.

Raymond Benson, Paul Bogott and H. F. Hillman are division leaders. Dr. Charles Kemp is pastor.

AT LEAST HE CAME ON BACK

This time the wife couldn't be blamed for the delay.

The story, told about a Lincoln couple and sworn to be true, goes like this:

The two were checking out of a hotel, preparing to return to the Capital City.

Hubby packed his bags and took them to his car. Then he waited patiently for his wife.

After 15 minutes, and no wife, he journeyed back to the hotel room. There he found his spouse sitting in a chair next to the window, with her slip and hat on.

Embarrassed hubby discovered he had packed all her dresses and carried them out to the car.

Sharp-Tongued Crow Feuds With Family

ST. PAUL, Minn. (AP) — From out of no where a voice said "Damn you, shut up!"

Ray Sonnee, talking over the back fence to a neighbor, looked up and sure enough it was the big black crow that has been pestering the family for days.

"He's as big as a chicken," Sonnee said.

"This afternoon he sneaked up behind my wife and scared the wits out of her. She was going to turn the hose on him, but he opened his mouth and it was about two inches wide. She dropped the hose and ran."

Monday Mrs. Sonnee and the crow had a similar encounter, and it ended the same way.

The crow established residence in a tree behind the Sonnee home several weeks ago.

Punch-line to the year's hottest power story—

Chevrolet "Turbo-Fire V8"!

This is the engine that's writing a whole new chapter in the book of automobile performance records. This is the engine that has stock car timers doing a "double take" at their stop-watches wherever experts gather to compare the abilities of the 1955 cars.

For example, in the recent NASCAR* stock car competition at Daytona Beach, Florida, Chevrolet literally ran away from every other car in its class—and a raft of others besides. In the one-mile straightaway run for low-priced cars, the first two places—and six of the first ten—went to Chevrolets. And in acceleration runs from a standing start against all comers, Chevrolet beat all other low-priced cars—and every high-priced car except one!

What's behind this blazing performance? A compact honey of a V8 that only the world's leading producer of valve-in-head engines can build. Chevrolet's new "Turbo-Fire V8" has the shortest piston stroke in the industry (that means less piston travel...longer engine life)! And it delivers the highest power per pound of any V8 in the low-priced field. It's so efficient that it requires only four quarts of oil instead of the usual five... needs less radiator coolant, too. It's the most modern V8 under anybody's hood!

It puts a new kind of fun in your driving life. You're in charge of 162 high-spirited horsepower—or if you're looking for even more excitement, the new* "Super *Turbo-Fire V8" (optional at extra cost) puts 180 h.p. under your toe!

'55 PACEMAKER CHEVROLET

Pick the one you'd rather have fun with, then come in and get behind the wheel. You'll see why the Motoramic Chevrolet is showing its heels to everyone else on the road!

No other low-priced car has any—no high-priced car has all—of these great Chevrolet features!

Body by Fisher—Nine engine-drive choices in any model—12-volt electrical system—Anti-Dive braking—Outrigger rear springs — Ball-Race steering — High-Level ventilation — Double-Arch cowl construction.

Democrat Plan For Rigid Farm Price Props Hits Peanut Snag

WASHINGTON (AP)—A Democratic plan to return to rigid farm price supports ran into trouble in the House Wednesday partly because Brooklyn Dodger fans don't get enough peanuts.

Bitter complaints were aired on the House floor that as a result of price props and government controls there are mighty few peanuts in the bags sold to baseball rooters in Brooklyn.

Whereupon Northern Democrats joined with Republicans in a teller vote of 186-150 to drop peanuts from the list of commodities that are considered basic for price support purposes.

Opponents In Control

The vote, while subject to reversal on a later roll call, showed that opponents of rigid price supports were in control and Democratic House Leader McCormack (Mass) said further action would be put over until Thursday.

The peanut amendment was offered by Rep. Green (D-Pa), who said the government has lost 118 million dollars supporting peanut prices since 1946.

Rep. Multer (D-NY), whose constituency includes the Brooklyn Dodgers, backed Green and said one thing he had in mind was getting more peanuts into the bags sold at Ebbets Field. Other baseball fans said they are now getting only "three or four peanuts per bag."

The bill before the House, backed chiefly by Democrats from farm districts, would scrap the administration program of government supports ranging from 82½ to 90 per cent of parity. It would return to the system of rigid 90 per cent of parity supports in effect until this year.

Union College's Convocation Hears Explanation Of 'Honor'

"Honor is not given, but is sired by the worthiness of your lives," Harley E. Rice of Denver told Union College students at an honors convocation.

Rice, business manager of Porter Sanitarium and Hospital in Denver, said "Honor is a by-product from pursuit of worthy deeds, not something that is voted on or decided in a committee."

Marie Anderson, registrar, presented the 127 honor students to Dr. E. B. Ogden, academic dean.

Charlotte Leho, A. V. Wallenkampf, Harold Lickey and Milton D. Hare also were on the program.

Building A Fortune

In 1936 Vincent Steck left the Dakotas, where he and his wife had homesteaded several places, for Milwaukee. Steck died in February of 1954 at the age of 78.

The Milwaukee Journal in a front-page story revealed, to use its words, that "a man who never earned much money but who lived frugally and invested his funds wisely in stocks and bonds, had accumulated $360,000 before his death."

There is a success story, with a capital "S," a success story which only this country produces, of such inspirational character as to give hope and faith to millions of Americans in the belief that opportunity exists in a very large sense, and sound everyday habits pay off. Thrift in the true sense is a very trite word, spoken with ease, but a word with a meaning that escapes the bulk of us in this country. Not all, or not even any large percentage, of wage earners possess the acumen or the genius to invest with wisdom. It would be a revelation to newspaper readers to know his plan of investment. But at no time in his life after leaving the Dakota homesteads did he earn large money. He was an electrician, for which he received a tiny room in a hotel in addition to his wages. He worked as a manual laborer, shoveling ashes. He tried his hand at farming while filling other jobs.

There is no moral to this amazing story beyond the fact that in a few rare cases the original conception of American opportunity which consists of hard work, careful planning and saving leads to success.

A Day For Good News

Nebraska had all the satisfaction anyone could want this week basking in near-perfect spring weather—golden sunshine, lush green of new growth and soft warm air laden with the scent of early blooms.

Relaxing under such pleasant surroundings it was nice, too, to receive pleasant little notes telling of economic bonuses, especially falling to agricuture.

They came in the report of mid-month farm commodity prices provided by the state-federal division of agricultural statistics covering the period from April 1-15.

The report revealed that prices received by Nebraska farmers were appreciably higher.

Cattle averaged $20.10 a hundredweight the highest mid-month average since May of last year.

Hog prices averaged $16.40 a hundredweight a gain of $1.10 within a month.

Potatoes put on the star performance. A year ago they were selling for 25 cents a bushel. The price increased until it was at 65 cents in mid March. A southern freeze and the prospect of a short crop shot them up to $2 a bushel by mid-April.

What it will all mean in the long run when the year's work is over and the profits are added up remains to be seen. But favorable news is always good news. And nothing is better on a grand day to have a little optimism arrive in the form of a promise of better things to come

Its Glistening Best

Non-partisanship in the settlement of national issues put in its appearance in its glistening best togs Wednesday when the Senate got down to the final voting on the controversial reciprocal trading agreement program.

We say "its glistening best" if the individual happens to believe the sound American economy has its roots in mounting foreign trade.

Again, "glistening best" carries with it the reservation that any individual using these words recognizes the basic principle that trade between nations—as well as trade between individuals—is an exchange of goods and services. If the individual—or in a larger sense, the nation—is unwilling to buy, then he cannot hope to sell. It is that simple and yet in recent months there has been expressed a mounting fear that American industry is to become deluged with cheap products from abroad. And as a result of that fear, exploited fully by groups, the pressure to abandon or to limit the reciprocal trading agreement program severely has been growing.

Mr Eisenhower, perhaps, should be grateful that the Democratic party controls Congress. The bulk of opposition to extension of the reciprocal trading agreement program, with broad powers vested in the President, has been within the President's own party. There the conservative Republicans, more vocal, at least, than the Eisenhower Republicans, gave every indication of amending the legislation Mr. Eisenhower requested to such an extent that it would bear little resemblance to the administration's bill.

Fortunately the President found his legislation on the reciprocal trading agreement program in friendly hands with the Democrats in congressional control. The loyal opposition warded off all of the attempts of a Republican minority to amend the legislation, and then appeared to be of a mood to give Mr. Eisenhower another victory, perhaps the most important one gained in this session of the 84th Congress. Basically the issue of trade is not related to partisanship. It became entangled in partisanship slightly more than half a century ago because of the traditional stands taken by the two major parties.

Of Men And Things

By J. E. LAWRENCE

To crawl far, far out on a limb, this is to suggest that Lincoln's city government will find itself confronted in the next 10 years with more tough decisions which must be made than in any similar period of time in the life of a rapidly growing community.

★

If back in the late 'thirties anyone had been bold enough to suggest that the Nebraska capital would be well above the 100,000-mark in population, including the city proper and its environs, such a prophecy would have inspired incredulity. If anyone had suggested that residential sections would nose outward and outward as they have in recent years, he would have been well advised to anticipate that his optimism would have been greeted with the good ol' raspberry "boo." Lincoln has changed, changed amazingly in the last 10 years, for the better, its people believe, and in changing has been fortunate to retain some of the atmosphere which made it attractive and appealing while experiencing marked growing pains. We have been fortunate. We have had, for the most part, good city government—prudent, commonsense, honest, and at all times anxious to move ahead. If criticism is to be voiced, perhaps it should be directed to the voters of Lincoln and not to the officials who serve them. The Lincoln voter on the basis of the record (Tuesday's turnout for a general election was the smallest on record) offers a study in paradoxes. He is proud of his community, interested in its growth, anxious to help in any way possible, and yet if his failure to vote is to be interpreted in conventional terms, then it is to be said that he does not care a hoot whether school keeps or not. He simply refuses to take the time to mark a ballot.

Cry For Services Keeps Pace

There were no surprises in the election results—no upsets—on the contrary the choice of new members for the Council, for the school board, coupled with approval of charter amendments, confirmed pre-election anticipations. There are 52,000-plus eligible voters. The total vote Tuesday was 10,244, an approximate one out of every five qualified voters. In Lincoln it is necessary to stretch the imagination considerably to conclude that democracy was at work.

★

Nor do we believe that Nebraska's capital city will stage a lively election until individually the qualified voters become convinced that the shoes they are wearing pinch too much. We are loath to say it with votes when things are going smoothly, when employment is high, when there are plenty of jobs and paychecks, satisfactory. It is a strange trait which the average American voter reveals. To get him to the polls, usually he has to become fevered up against something rather than for something. More frequently when he votes, it is against rather than for. And if he stays away and fails to vote, then it is safe to assume he is satisfied. At this time the Board of Education is embarking upon the most extensive expansion program in connection with the Lincoln schools in the district's history. At the City Hall the need for revenue, always a headache, is certain to become more pressing. The cry for services at every level of government—federal, state and local—continues unabated. If that demand is to be met, then inevitably taxes will continue to increase, and expenditures to grow. That is the problem etched so clearly which must be faced in the immediate years ahead. Lincoln's city government today calls for more money—tomorrow the needs will be greater.

The Shoe Must Pinch

There is much to be done if civic development which we call progress is to continue, and in each individual instance it will cost money. Mayor Clark Jeary was without opposition in his bid for re-election, evidence of the high regard and gratitude which the voters of the community have for him. Pat Ash, Rees Wilkinson and Abe Martin can all be expected to contribute excellent service in response to the mayor's leadership.

Sarah T. Muir

The greatest memorial to Miss Sarah T. Muir, whose death occured Tuesday, will be the grateful memory of hundreds of youngsters who came under her inspiration as a teacher in the Lincoln schools. Miss Muir was a remarkable teacher. For 29 years she was chairman of the English department of Lincoln High School, a tenure of sufficient length to constitute outstanding recognition under the pressures and requirements of these years. She had the uncanny capacity to enlist the interest of those under her and to maintain a curiosity of mind which is in itself the true foundation of education.

The daughter of a pioneer Lincoln family, niece of a distinguished American naturalist, Miss Muir herself received so many honors in recognition of her talents and her ability that it would be impossible to list them all here. She took an avid interest in education, served in the Legislature with understanding distinction, and lent herself to many other worthwhile undertakings. She was a most useful Nebraska leader.

Anti - Trust Probers Doubtful Of Counsel

WASHINGTON — It has now been four months since the Democratic Senate convened, with a big blare of trumpets about probing monopoly.

And here is the inside story of what happened when the Senate Anti-Monopoly committee under Chairman Harley Kilgore of West Virginia at long last got down to work on April 26 at 2 p.m.

As the senators sat down, someone anonymously handed them a speech made at the University of Michigan law school by Joseph W. Burns, the man who had been picked by Sen. Kilgore to be counsel of the investigating committee.

Senators took a fast look at the speech and were flabbergasted.

"It looks as if our coursel is even to the right of Attorney General Brownell," remarked Sen. Kefauver of Tennessee.

Sen. Tom Hennings of Missouri, another Democrat, agreed. So did Sen. Joe O'Mahoney of Wyoming, the veteran trust-buster. Sen. Bill Langer, North Dakota Republican rubbed his eyes in amazement.

For Joe Burns, the man supposed to investigate monopoly, had delivered a vicious attack on the antitrust laws supposed to protect against monopoly.

Openly he stated that lawyers owed it to "their clients" to secure favorable revisions of the antitrust laws. He recommended virtual repeal of the Robinson-Patman act, proposed ending the treble damage and criminal provisions of the Sherman Antitrust Act, and made the astounding statement that the supreme court had "no authority to upset the entire economy of the country . . .In declaring invalid the freight equalization or basing-point price system."

☆ ☆ ☆

"I am terribly upset," confessed Chairman Kilgore, after reading the speech of the man he had picked to defend small business.

He had picked Burns as a favor to two old friends — Hugh Fulton and Rudolph Halley, each former counsel of the old Truman committee, both now Wall Street lawyers. Several of Kilgore's colleagues opposed Burns's appointment in the first place, but the West Virginia solon, one of the most lovable but harrassed members of the Senate, insisted on appointing him.

And even after Burn's pro-monopoly speech was scrutinized, Kilgore still insisted on keeping him.

IKE NOT TOLD

Kentucky's venerable Sen. Alben Barkley, the ex-veep, pointed out that President Eisenhower had disassociated himself from the Yalta release, and demanded to know how it could be that the President wasn't informed.

Dulles replied that he considered the Yalta release an administrative detail that the President shouldn't be bothered about.

"The difference between us," replied Barkley, "is the definition as to what is a major problem."

Few matters in foreign policy had arisen since the Eisenhower administration took office that affected our relations with foreign government so directly, Barkley suggested.

"Maybe now you realize it is more of a major problem than you thought," smiled the Veep slyly, referring to the uproar over the Yalta disclosures.

After a three-hour going over, this may explain why Dulles came out of the closed-door meeting looking like a whipped dog.

The Boy Next Door Looks At Authorship

The boy next door, whose principal ambition is to make a million dollars before he is 35, has an idea for a book. It makes me wonder if there hasn't been too much stress laid on the value of ideas.

The reason he came up with his brainstorm was that he read somewhere about how a book like "Gone With the Wind" brings in a million dollars or so. (He missed the fine print, where it says that most books earn maybe a thousand dollars, more or less.

It was not the economics of authorship he came over to discuss, however. It was the idea. He mentioned just in passing that it was probably worth a fortune. There were a lot of characters in the idea, of assorted sexes, most of them pretty introspective and disillusioned with life. Right off the bat they all got buried by a landslide in an old mine shaft—

☆ ☆ ☆

At the end of half an hour the boy from next door took a deep breath and said, "Well, that's it. Now, don't you agree that it's a million-dollar idea?"

"So was the safety pin," I grunted, "but I betcha a dozen people thought of it before anyone made a cent out of it."

"What do you mean?"

"Put it another way, as long as it's writing you're thinking of. Here's an idea: An old fisherman who's been down on his luck paddles out to sea and catches a big fish, but he has a lot of trouble with it and loses it before he comes home again. How does that strike you for a book?"

"You don't catch me on that one," he grinned. "That's 'The Old Man and the Sea.' It does sound like a pretty slim idea, though, doesn't it?"

"To my way of thinking, it was the best idea Hemingway ever had. That's beside the point, though. The point is, if anybody else had the same idea, it wouldn't have been the same book when it was finished. The idea wasn't worth much, all by itself. It was what was done with it that counted."

"In other words, I better get my idea down on paper, huh?"

☆ ☆ ☆

I made one more try. I said, "Look, fella, let's go back to the safety pin, which was simpler. It took steel and tools and factories and salesmanship and retail outlets and a hundred other things With a book it takes grammar and spelling and education and knowing a lot about people, and on top of that a feeling for words and phrases and emotions. The idea isn't even a good beginning."

"You mean my idea isn't any good?"

I gave up. "If Hemingway had it," I said, "it would be a marvelous idea — maybe a million-dollar idea. If I had it, it might be worth 50 bucks somewhere. It's yours, though, and we haven't got a performance chart on you. So it is neither good nor bad. It's just an idea."

Governor Knight Eyes Presidency

WASHINGTON — A busy governor at the current White House conference of governors is the Hon. Goodwin J. Knight of California. The latch string is always out at the hotel suite where Gov. Knight and his handsome new wife are receiving a wide variety of customers including influential labor leaders.

The labor callers knew of course that Gov. Knight enjoyed American Federation of Labor support at home. They still did not expect such cordiality from an important Republican governor. Mrs. Knight, too, was flatteringly familiar with their names and connections.

Their cup really ran over when the governor made it clear how very greatly he differs from his fellow-Californian, Vice President Nixon, who is a pet hate of the unions. The governor explained that one California newspaper now refers to the state capitol as "Gompers hall."

This should not have surprised them. The governor recently regretted that he could not attend a dinner for the vice president in Los Angeles because he was addressing the Teamsters' Union that evening. Gov. Knight added that he would be glad to see Nixon in Sacramento.

☆ ☆ ☆

In contrast to the foregoing, Knight avoids controversy with another ambitious Californian, Sen. Knowland. In organizational matters he has usually sided with Knowland supporters.

The vice president staged a seeming show of unity with a luncheon for the governor's party which was attended also by both California senators, Knowland and Kuchel. The same group were on hand for a testimonial dinner for Sen. Knowland given that night by the Oakland Chamber of Commerce.

There appears to be no doubt, however, that the California GOP has potentialities for political fission of high explosive power should President Eisenhower decide that he will not run again.

☆ ☆ ☆

According to students of the complicated California election laws, candidates for president next year must make their aspirations known by January 1st if they are to get a full slate of delegates. This is said to be true of both parties.

January 1st next is a date rather earlier than the President might like for such a decision. This is true especially if he wants to bow out. For then the session of Congress just beginning would be virtually out of his control once his announcement was made.

It is suggested that Gov. Knight is working hard to consolidate his support in advance of the new year as he, of course, knows somebody who is ready to run—himself. Should the President delay, it would, by usual custom, be the governor in whose name the delegates were held.

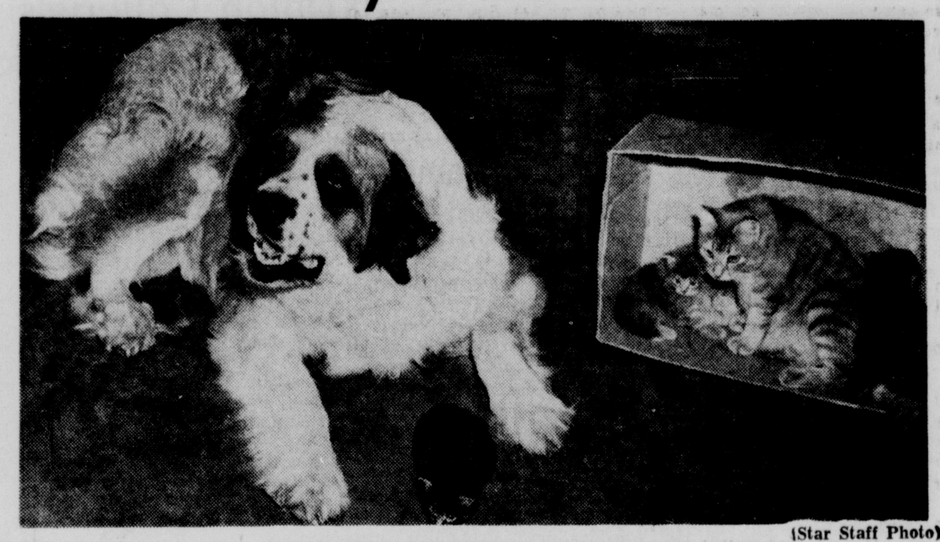
MAN'S BEST FRIEND

First Lady Of The Theater



(Star Staff Photo)

TERESA MAY AND HER FELINE FRIENDS
. . . Nine cats and nine lives undisturbed by mutual agreement . . .

By ALLEN EDEE
Star Staff Writer

A 195-pound stage-struck dog has made her influence felt upon the summer theater in Lincoln.

It isn't because she is any successor to Rin-Tin-Tin. Rather it is the way she has of charming the theater-goers with her simple dignity and love of the bright lights at Hayloft Theater productions at 59th and South. She stands at the entrance to the barn loft with the dignity of a sponsoring dowager.

It is obvious to the owners of this monstrous canine, the R. W. Faulkners of 5902 South, however, that Teresa May does have theatrical aspirations. In fact, the dog has a bit part in a show to her credit.

☆ ☆ ☆

The trouble comes in getting her onto the stage, which is much more difficult than carrying the heaviest prop. For Teresa's stage debut in "The Milky Way," the canine had to be pushed up the ramp by four persons. The cast was nearly exhausted with her debut after six nights of repeat performances.

The bit part called for one female canine actress simply to walk across the stage. Teresa played the part to the hilt. In fact, some expert tugging was required to remove the reluctant St. Bernard from the stage.

Teresa May attends rehearsals undaunted by the critics' barbs. More than one rehearsal scene has been ruined by this ham actress who plops her poundage down in the middle of the stage.

The casts, however, have failed to become jealous because of Teresa's vying for lead parts. They think of the canine rather as the faithful follower of the theater.

☆ ☆ ☆

Teresa, like all great actresses, leads a rather unusual life. She is surrounded by nine cats who have reached an unspoken agreement with her to live and let live.

The agreement apparently includes running strange cats off the premises for Teresa is a bear when it comes to stray toms.

Her quaint habits extend to the daily bath which consists of lying right in the middle of a lawn spray and eating raw rabbit which she catches herself and prefers to excellent vitamin-packed canned dog dinners.

But the most unusual thing about the St. Bernard is her name. Teresa stands for Saint and her middle name, May, is her birth month.

How Much Radioactivity?

Editor's Note: Much has been said about the destruction of the atmosphere by cumulative radioactivity, and its inevitable consequence, the ending of life. The National Academy of Science proposes to find out where the critical point is. The following is from the Pittsburg Post-Gazette.

★

Questions with fateful implications for the human race are soon to be tackled by this nation's leading scientific organization. The National Academy of Sciences has announced it will undertake a broad appraisal of present knowledge about the effects of atomic radiation.

The projected study is especially timely because of the guidance it can provide on momentous issues of policy now facing the nation. An agency such as the National Academy—a quasi-governmental body founded under the auspices of President Lincoln and chartered by Congress—has the prestige to offset some of the dangerously misleading statements on atomic radiation that have been circulating recently.

Any appraisal, including that by the National Academy, must begin with the assumption that present knowledge of radiation is insufficient to give definite answers on what our atomic policy should be. Yet one newspaper columnist has been preaching in a tone of unanswerable finality that new experiments show the present "fallout" level from bomb tests "cannot harm future generations."

Actually no one knows with certainty what will happen to future generations if the present rate of radiation from nuclear explosions is continued. The effects of substantially more than normal radiation on human beings may not be observable until the third or even the tenth generation. (So far scientists have only had an opportunity to study second-generation Japanese victims of excess radiation.) The results of radiation experiments with insects cannot be translated into reliable answers for humans.

Enough, however, is known about radiation to warn us that we cannot afford to be complacent. It is known that the genes, by which characteristics are transmitted one human generation to another, may be "jolted" in such a way by radioactive atoms that a permanent departure from type will result. Such a change may show up in the future in the form of a hereditary disease, mental defectiveness or a physical handicap.

☆ ☆ ☆

The seriousness of such harmful effects will depend of course on the concentration of radioactivity in the earth's atmosphere. And while the present level of radioactivity may not be great enough to do any general damage, the unfortunate fact is that we do not know at what point the cumulative dosage of radioactivity will become dangerous. Still more unfortunate is the fact that, if we let the concentration get too high, we will not be able to undo what we have thereby done to future generations.

This is why the National Academy study is a matter of such momentous significance.

Nebraska Roads

Lincoln, Neb.

To the editor of The Lincoln Star: On Monday of this week the Legislature repealed the turnpike law, and they should have. The passage of it was a big joke in the first place. Now, if there is any way of stopping the propaganda for four-lane highways, someone would be doing another good job. We don't need them nor want them for years to come. I made a trip to Grand Island on the bus recently, returning in the evening, and we didn't meet nor pass four vehicles along the line. It's time the people make a concerted effort to stop the nonsense being put out for more millions of expense for roads in Nebraska. We need more good roads in all sections of the state to get them out of the mud, something practical for all our citizens. But a lot of things we don't need.

CHILD AND A MOUSE

A little mouse came peeping out.
His eyes like stars were gleaming.

When he began to run about
My mamma started screaming.
I watched him running here and there
And thought him well behaving.
But mamma climbed upon a chair
Her skirt in terror waving.

Greaseless, odorless cream penetrates deep—speeds up flow of fresh, rich blood into sore areas—actually helps drive away pain-causing congestion and pressure.

New York, N. Y. (Special)—Science has now developed an odorless, greaseless cream that acts in a new way to bring a new kind of relief from pains of arthritis, rheumatism, and muscular aches and pains. This new cream relieves these pains without the need of taking pills and other internal medicines that may only upset the system.

Gently rubbed into painful areas, this cream penetrates so deep and completely that it actually vanishes. Quickly a comforting feeling of warmth develops and the whole painful area takes on a pleasing glow. Shivers Hasn't Changed His Stand Against Adlai

WASHINGTON (AP) — Gov. Allan Shivers of Texas said Wednesday "I haven't changed my opinion" of Adlai E. Stevenson, the 1952 Democratic presidential nominee whom he refused to support.

The Texas chief executive also told reporters he expects to attend the Democratic National Convention next year as a delegate.

Stephen A. Mitchell, the former chairman of the Democratic National Committee, has predicted that Shivers, among others who backed President Eisenhower in 1952, will not be seated as delegates at the party convention next year.

Carmine de Sapio, Tammany Hall leader who will have a powerful hand in controlling New York State's biggest - in - the-nation block of convention delegates, also took a rap at Stevenson, even though mildly and indirectly.

High Honor

Any Democrat, De Sapio said, "should feel honored to have bestowed on him the high honor of designation for the presidency of his country. I do not think anyone, under our system of government, should remain coy and have to be drafted."

Asked whether he was talking about Stevenson, De Sapio paused, grinned, and said he had referred to "any Democrat."

But he wouldn't go as far as Gov. Averell Harriman of New York, who has said he is for Stevenson for the party nomination in 1956. And he didn't rule out the possibility that Harriman himself, might take the prize in 1956.

Both Shivers and De Sapio sat in on a Democratic strategy huddle Wednesday, attended by more than a dozen Democratic governors, national party officials, and several state committeemen.

Questioning

De Sapio is national committeeman for New York and secretary of state of New York.

National Chairman Paul M. Butler told reporters the session wound up with "a general questioning of capacity and leadership" of President Eisenhower. He said there was considerable discussion of "the indecisiveness, shall we say, of the leadership of the Eisenhower administration and general agreement that the farm program is one of the biggest issues of the day and potentially for '56."

Thus an afternoon session of the Democratic governors ended on much the same note as a morning meeting at which the administration was attacked for what various governors called complacency about unemployment and neglect and indifference toward farmers.

Shivers' attendance stirred up interest in view of his support for Eisenhower in 1952.

To a question whether there was any liklihood of his supporting the Democratic presidential candidate next year if Eisenhower runs again, Shivers replied that he wouldn't say until he knows who the candidate will be and what the platform is like.

U.S. Chamber Asks Federal Sales Tax To Replace Excise Plan

WASHINGTON (INS)—The U.S. Chamber of Commerce voted overwhelmingly in favor Wednesday of a national federal sales tax to replace present excise levies. It also asked for tighter curbs on labor unions.

The action was taken at the final session of the chamber's 43rd annual convention.

The business organization rejected by a lopsided majority a proposal by retailers that it abandon long-standing support of a general sales tax.

Instead, the chamber adopted a policy declaration stating some form of general sales levy should be passed by Congress.

The declaration said: "Repeated extension of the war increases of excises and levies of a nuisance type threatens to perpetuate discrimination as between taxpayers and should not be continued."

Right to Strike

The chamber also:

1. Adopted a policy statement favoring stronger restrictions on the right to strike, as well as the number of other curbs on unions.

2. Strongly opposed "compulsory unionism." The chamber insisted that Congress should change the Taft-Hartley Act to outlaw the union shop and urged more states to pass "right to work" laws.

3. Adopted a proposal that off-street parking facilities by private industry should be given full encouragement "without hindrance, competition or subsidizations by government."

4. Opposed the President's plan to have the federal government pay 25 billion dollars of the 27 billion necessary to complete the interstate highway system in 10 years. The chamber said the government should not pay more than 60 per cent and the states should foot the rest.

Wiretap

5. Declared Congress should authorize use of wiretap evidence under safeguards in cases involving subversive activities.

6. Called for "the widest public knowledge and understanding of the uses of the atom" and release of atomic information where it can be done without endangering security.

7. Opposed federal control of the production, use or price of oil and natural gas.

Former President Herbert Hoover told the chamber that if his commission on government organization could have its way, the federal budget would be "balanced overnight."

Hoover said his commission has submitted to Congress nine reports with 200 recommendations for economy and improved efficiency.

In addition, he said, three other reports have now been completed. These deal with warehousing and storage of goods and commodities, research and development, and competition of government agencies with private enterprise.

Neighbors Assist In Farmer's Work

When Fred Kerkow, a farmer from Douglas, was stricken with meningitis and admitted to the Veterans Hospital in Lincoln, 15 neighbors pitched in with the farm work.

They plowed and disked 80 acres for Kerkow on his farm one mile south and one mile west of Douglas.

Dinner for the workers was prepared and served by Mrs. Roscoe Malone, Miss Ione Kepler and Mrs. Gerald Eggers.

Kerkow's condition, following an operation, was reported as "somewhat improved." He has been hospitalized for three weeks.

Assessment Complaints Go Over 500

Between 500 and 600 real estate assessment complaints have already been filed with the 1955 Lancaster County Board of Equalization for hearing during the 40-day equalization period beginning May 16.

Another record-breaking year for the number of protests was seen by one county official in the large number of complaints filed early this year. Last year, the equalization board reviewed 847 protests.

Commissioner Del Lienemann will probably be named chairman of the 1955 equalization board, according to some courthouse observers. Lienemann is serving his first term on the equalization board as a commissioner.

Last year's board chairman was Chris Kuhner, who with County Board Chairman Russell Brehm compose the three-member equalization board.

Last year the equalization board worked right up to midnight of the final day in reviewing complaints on assessments which were based on the county-wide reappraisal work just completed by the E. T. Wilkins and Associates firm.

As in 1954, the board will notify property owners who have filed complaints when to appear for hearing.

It is expected hearings will be scheduled to give each complainant about 10 minutes in which to present the evidence in support of his assessment protest.

Nebraska Marines Hope For Trophy

Nebraska's Marine reserve unit will be out to capture the General Clement trophy for the second time when they embark June 26 at San Diego.

Capt. Robert H. Berkshire, commander of the Lincoln reservists, said the 86th Special Infantry Company of Lincoln has a good chance of winning the trophy the second year in a row. No other oufit has done this so far.

Fourteen reserve units will try for the trophy which will be awarded to the most outstanding reserve unit training at the Marine Corps Recruit Depot.

Selection for winner of the traveling trophy is based on weapon qualification, military examinations combat firing problems and general observations of the award committee.

The 32-inch trophy is named in honor of Lt. Gen. William T. Clement for his contributions to the Marine reserve program.

Missing $5,000 Bank Money Returned

Lincoln Star Special

ODELL, Neb. — "It's a great relief to have the $5,000 returned," declared Mrs. Gene Stanoshek, wife of the cashier of the Odell State Bank. "I'm very happy."

She referred to a package of money, missing since last Friday, and returned Wednesday via parcel post to a Beatrice store.

Mrs. Stanoshek had picked up the money Friday at the Beatrice National Bank for her husband's bank. She had stopped in the F. W. Woolworth Store at Beatrice before returning to Odell and had placed the package on a counter while purchasing a comb. A few minutes after leaving the store she realized she had walked away without the package of money. Upon her return she discovered the package missing.

MRS. STANOSHEK . . . "very happy."

Money In Cigar Box

The package, contained in a cigar box, was returned by parcel post to the manager of Woolworth's Wednesday.

The Federal Bureau of Investigation, which had been called into the case, checked the package and reported all the money had been returned.

An unsigned note in the package said: "Picked this up in your store last Friday by mistake. Thought best to return at once to you."

The postmark was illegible.

Called FBI

Gordon Berggren, manager of the Woolworth store, immediately called the Beatrice National Bank when he started to open the package and discovered it was money. The FBI was called to take fingerprints before the package was further opened.

"The entire Beatrice community feels relieved the money has been returned," commented Ed Austin, president of the Beatrice National Bank.

Stanoshek, at Odell, also expressed relief. Although the loss was covered by insurance, it pleased officials to have the money brought back.

Another relieved person was Berggren. All of his employes had faced questioning since the disappearance occurred in his store.

Firemen Battle Prairie Fires

Lincoln Star Special

ORD, Neb.—Two prairie fires broke out in the ranch country north of Burwell and Ericson on the same day, fanned by a 40 to 50 mile an hour wind. Firemen from both Burwell and Ord battled the flames.

The first fire was about 20 miles north of Burwell on the Nickolsen Ranch and covered a stretch about two miles wide and nine miles long. Several stacks of hay were lost in the fire.

The second blaze was on the Mahlmstein Ranch northwest of Ericson.

Halcomb Surrenders School Land Lease; Criticizes Board

KIMBALL, Neb. (AP) — L. Verne Halcomb of Kimball has surrendered his school land lease. He had been "severely reprimanded" by the State Board of Educational Lands and Funds last week for alleged neglect of the land he leased.

Halcomb wrote the board that "holders of school land leases have had another slap in the face."

He charged the board with "vicious, unjustified tactics" and added "publicity seems to have become the objective and I am the victim of unlimited search for means of exploitation."

Halcomb was reprimanded after the complaints of a neighbor who charged Halcomb's land was blowing through neglect.

In Lincoln, Board Secretary Robert D. Hiatt said his office had not received the letter from Halcomb by Wednesday. He added none of the board members had notified him of any communication from Halcomb.

Episcopalians Gather In Nebraska City

Bishop Brinker Addresses Group

NEBRASKA CITY, Neb. (AP)—The Woman's Auxiliary of the Episcopal Church in Nebraska began its annual meeting here Wednesday with a series of workshops.

Bishop Howard R. Brinker gave his annual address Wednesday evening as the 88th Nebraska diocesan council of the Episcopal Church opened.

Both auxiliary and council will conclude their meetings Thursday. The business will include election of officers and selection of a 1956 meeting place.

Bishop Joseph S. Minnis of Colorado was to address the annual banquet Thursday evening.

About 350 persons from outside Nebraska City were expected for the sessions. About half that number had registered late Wednesday.

The host parish is St. Mary's, the oldest Episcopal Church in Nebraska.

Postal Aid For C&NW Held Up; Change Delayed

OMAHA (AP)—Postal Transportation Service officials said Wednesday the proposed Post Office Department aid for the Chicago & North Western Railway's northern Nebraska trains has been held up.

The department last week said it would transfer a sizable amount of mail business from the Burlington Lines to the North Western between Omaha and Chadron.

Local officials of the Postal Transportation Service said they had orders from Washington to delay the change "until further advised."

Cal Stewart, O'Neill, Neb., newspaperman who heads the Save-The-Train Assn. said he is "not at all concerned" over the delay. He said the Post Office Department had assured the association the switch of mail would be made.

Fairbury Boy Loses Life In Road Accident

Lincoln Star Special

FAIRBURY, Neb. — Funeral services for Dennis Prather, 14, fatally injured in the crash of a carry-all he was driving, be held at 2:30 p.m. Friday at the Nuckolls Funeral Home here.

He died in a Fairbury hospital Wednesday of injuries suffered several hours earlier. The vehicle crashed into a tree.

Jefferson County Sheriff Deyo Hughes of Fairbury said Leroy Lewis of Fairbury, who was riding with Prather, suffered cuts and bruises. Lewis was reported in good condition late Wednesday.

The sheriff said the two boys had been working on the Alvin Schoenrock farm and were driving to town in Schoenrock's carry-all when the accident occurred on a county road about three miles northwest of Fairbury.

Young Prather is survived by his father, Robert C. Prather of Lincoln; his grandmother, with whom he made his home, Mrs. O. R. Prather, of Fairbury; three sisters and two brothers.

His death was the 94th highway fatality in Nebraska this year, compared with 96 at this time in 1954.

Penalty For Undesirable Wheat Eyed

SCOTTSBLUFF, Neb. (AP)—A Department of Agriculture official said the department is "exploring" the possibility of putting a penalty on undesirable qualities of wheat in 1956.

This statement came from Marvin McLain, director of the grain branch of the Commodity Stabilization Service in Washington, in an address before an Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation conference here.

Considering Standards

He said the government experiment stations are determining now which qualities of wheat should be considered undesirable.

"If the penalties go into effect," the official said, "it should eliminate poor qualities of wheat within one to two years."

McLain predicted that the carry-over of wheat and corn would be at an "all time high" by the time this year's harvest is in "despite growing regions."

He said the problem of surplus was nearly solved twice—both times in a period of war—adding that "if we want to live in a peacetime economy we haven't got the problem solved."

Glenn Cunningham of Omaha director of the U. S. Savings Bond division in Nebraska, presented a certificate to the state ASC committee for its part in keeping the state among the highest on a per-capita basis for the sale of government bonds.

During the morning roll call at the opening of the conference, every county in the state was found to be represented.

State Farm Price Index Climbs 9 Points

Potato Mid-April Mark Highest Since '26 As Spuds Hit $2 Bu.

The index of prices received by Nebraska farmers for the things they produce climbed nine points —to 262—during the month ending April 15, the State-Federal Division of Agricultural Statistics reported Wednesday.

The index stands higher than the national index but is under the Nebraska index of 297 a year ago.

The livestock index climbed from 262 to 271 during the month, and the all-crop index rose from 227 to 236, chiefly as the result of the highest mid-April potato prices in Nebraska in 29 years.

Potato prices skyrocketed to two dollars a bushel, compared with 25 cents a year ago and 65 cents in mid-March.

Cattle prices averaged $20.10 per hundred, the highest mid-month average since May of last year. A month ago the average was $18.90. Cattle from feed lots made up a relatively high percentage of recent marketings.

Hog prices averaged $16.40, up $1.10 for the month and the first upturn in Nebraska since August of last year.

Lamb prices sagged 40 cents to $20.90.

Egg prices declined seasonally by 5 cents a dozen to 29 cents, and butterfat prices averaged one cent a pound below last month although the mid-April average of 57 cents was 4 cents higher than a year earlier.

Crops Down

Average crop prices in mid-April, and the change from a month earlier, included:

Wheat $2.12, down .01.
Corn $1.25, up .02.
Oats .70, down .01.
Barley $1.06, down .01
Rye $1.00, down .03.
All baled hay, ton, $16.20, down .20.
Baled alfalfa hay $17.00, down .30.
Dry edible beans, cwt. $6.90, down .20.
Grain sorghum cwt. $2.03, down .04.
Soybeans $2.23, down .17.

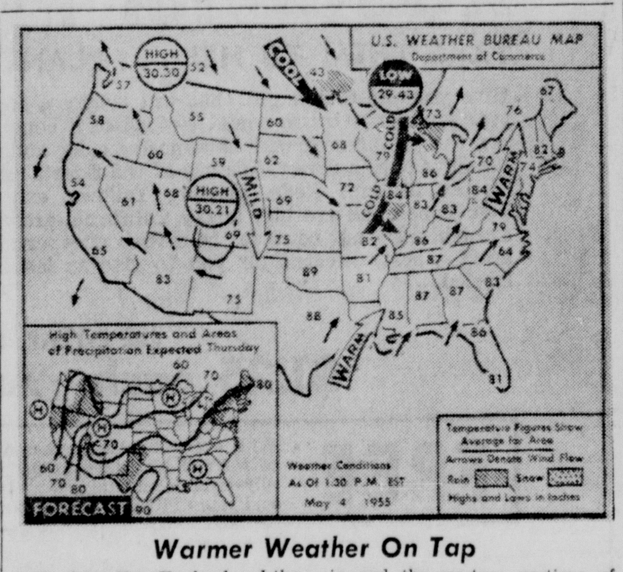
Weigh Operation Bill Is Introduced

A bill giving Gov. Anderson the power to designate whether Highway Department civilians or State Safety Patrolmen shall operate truck weighing stations was introduced in the Legislature Wednesday. The bill was submitted by the Public Works Committee.

The Legislature suspended the rules and waived a public hearing for the measure.

Opposing bills designating the troopers or civilians as operators of the scales were killed by the Public Works Committee.

The State Justice Department informed the committee that legislation will be necessary in order for the governor to make the decision because of portions of highway statutes repealed in other bills.



Warmer Weather On Tap

Northern New England and the northern Appalachians will have showers and scattered thunderstorms Thursday. A few thundershowers are expected in western Oklahoma and western Texas, and scattered showers in the northern Rockies. Occasional rain will fall in northern California and the western portions of the Great Basin. Clear to partly cloudy skies will be the rule elsewhere. It will be cooler in the lower Lakes region, the Ohio valley and the central Mississippi Valley. It will be warmer in the north and central Plains. (AP Wirephoto Map)

Bills Left In Committee Killed; Sales Tax Measure Included

By ARCH DONOVAN
Star Staff Writer

Legislators Wednesday showed the first definite indications that they are considering bringing the present session to an end. All bills on which committees had taken no action with the exception of the two appropriation bills were indefinitely postponed at the afternoon session.

Sen. O. H. Person, Wahoo, was author of the motion. However, Sen. Thomas Adams of Lincoln objected to the immediate "wholesale slaughter" of bills and action was delayed until afternoon.

At that time Sen. Person pointed out that the "wholesale slaughter" consisted of killing three bills, LB 317, 400 and 480. Sen. Hal Bridenbaugh, chairman of the budget committee asked that LB 496, a state aid for schools bill be added. The vote to conclude the work of the committees was 32 to 2 with Sens. Burney and John Adams opposed.

With committees reporting their favorable action in sending 21 bills to general file and three being advanced by the Legislature, the general file Wednesday night contained 82 bills which must have their initial consideration before the session reaches its final stages.

Included in the bills killed was LB 400, the sales tax bill introduced by Burney which was combined with the Tom Adams income tax bill into a new bill as a surprise move at the public hearing. No notice was given opponents that the new bill was to be presented as an amendment.

The death of the sales tax measure means that supporters of such methods of broadening the tax base must rest their hopes on the combination income - sales tax bill which is at the top of general file for consideration Thursday morning.

The killed state aid for schools bill was supported by the educational lobby as a method of disposing of surplus funds they claim will exist after replacing the state property tax if the income-sales tax bill passes.

The other two measures killed by the Person move were:

LB 317 providing truck, trailer and bus reciprocity with other states.

LB 480 providing new method for collecting tax on motor vehicles after Jan. 1, 1956.

Socialists Defeated

KARLSRUHE, West Germany (INS) — A ruling by the West German Supreme Court defeated a Socialist attempt to kill the French-German agreement on the future of the coal-producing Saar. A Socialist-sponsored suit contended the Saar accord, part of the series of Paris agreements on German rearmament, was unconstitutional.

Composer Grofe Writes Music For Ivy Day Songfest

A University of Nebraska fraternity will have something special to sing about when they enter the annual Ivy Day songfest Saturday.

Wendell Friest, musical director for Theta Xi fraternity, said his group will present a new song written especially for the Ivy Day sing by Ferde Grofe, one of the foremost living American composers.

Grofe, who is best known for his "Grand Canyon Suite," consented to write the music for the song if the fraternity would write the words.

The chapter's song-writing team of Leonard Barker of Lincoln, Jess Brownell of Wakefield, and Friest of Plattsmouth authored the words in "about an evening." Two weeks ago, Grofe returned the completed song, entitled, "Song of the Esquire," to the fraternity.

Driver Retests Get Ax

The bill providing for periodic re-examination of drivers failed on final passage in the Legislature Wednesday. The vote was 20 to 20 with 22 votes required for passage.

The measure in its amended form would have required all drivers to be re-examined at the ages of 30, 40, 50, 60, 70, 75, 80, 85, 90 and 95.

Many attempts to kill the bill, LB 66, failed during its journey to final reading after hours of heated debate. But it never mustered more than 21 votes.

Speaker Burney of Hartington, introducer of the measure, had argued that it will diminish slaughter on the highways.

Opponents, headed by Sen. Larkin of Omaha, contended it would be an inconvenience and an additional burden on the taxpayer.

The re-examination plan, the result of a Legislative Council study, originally called for a new examination every five years. But the Government Committee amended it to call for examinations every 10 years until the driver reached the age of 75.

Under present law, Nebraska drivers are not re-examined following their initial test.

The vote on final passage:

Adenauer At Threshold Of Golden Goal

BONN, Germany (AP) — Thursday Konrad Adenauer wins the glittering prize he has pursued for six years — sovereignty for West Germany, with equality in the family of nations.

It will be a day of congratulations and official ceremonies and reminiscing for Adenauer. He can consider the six years that catapulted him from obscurity to one of the free world's outstanding statesmen.

Go back to May 5, 1949. Adenauer was 73 years old. He had served as mayor of Cologne but appeared to have no future in German politics. Four months later, however, he spearheaded a political coalition into power and became the first Chancellor of the West German Republic.

Powerful Nation

Today Germany is a powerful nation, with one of the most stable democratic governments in Europe. And Adenauer is its undisputed leader.

Only nine months ago his cherished aim teetered near disaster when France jettisoned the project for a European Defense Community to include West Germany. Two months later Adenauer returned with pledges of sovereignty and membership in the Atlantic Alliance and a West European Union.

All this is becoming a reality this month. Thursday is the day for the transfer of sovereignty.

With a national election two years away, Adenauer has no intention of giving up Germany's leadership. He is charting new tasks—unification of this divided nation, new steps toward European unity, and overseeing the buildup of the new German army.

Despite his 79 years, Arenauer still works 12 hours a day.

He's up at 6 a.m. daily to read newspapers and listen to radio newscasts. Then he dictates private letters. He breakfasts on strong tea, butter and rolls and one boiled egg from his own henyard.

Between 8 and 9 he steps into a black Mercedes Limousine and whizzes off to his office.

Hearing Set On Allied Request For Firm Gas

Gov. Anderson has obtained a hearing with the Federal Power Commission (FPC) for Friday in Washington on the application of the Allied Chemical and Dye Corp. for natural gas on a firm basis.

A. C. Eichberg, the governor's administrative assistant, said Wednesday that Nebraska's two U.S. senators, Roman Hruska and Carl Curtis, will attend the hearing.

Allied made the request for its nitrogen division plant in La Platte, Neb., in order to step up production of fertilizers. The FPC has taken no action on the application.

Anderson is in Washington attending the President's National Conference of Governors. He was scheduled to return here Thursday but he will remain in the capitol until Saturday because of the FPC hearing, Eichberg said.

The Governor has been a strong supporter of the Allied application. He has contended that the proposed firm supply of gas from Northern Natural Gas Co. for Allied will not affect Northern's retail customers. Northern now supplies the fertilizer plant on an interruptable basis.

A resolution recommending FPC approval was introduced in the Nebraska Legislature but was killed by the Judiciary Committee.

The committee reportedly received no reply from Natural when it asked how the proposal would affect the company's rates to the state's municipalities.

L.A.'s 24-Year-Old Councilwoman Charms Washington With Sewage Issue

WASHINGTON (AP) — Wouldn't you know Congress would flub a chance like this?

Here it had as a witness probably the youngest, and undoubtedly the cutest, city councilwoman in the whole world. And what did it do with this opportunity to decorate the normally dull looking witness chair?

It followed tradition, and, as it almost always does in testimony on appropriations, barred the public from the hearing room.

And so a House Appropriations subcommittee met behind closed doors to hear Rosalind Wiener Wyman, 24-year-old Los Angeles councilwoman, explain the city's sewage problems.

$7,200 Job

Mrs. Wyman, a vivacious brunette, is the girl who stepped out of the University of Southern California two years ago into a $7,200-a-year job as councilman.

She feels her career proves:

A. That there's a future for young people in politics,

B. That in politics, as in advertising, it pays to have a gimmick, and

C. That even a political speech may serve as husband bait.

In spite of her age, Rosalind is no political novice. Her parents were red hot Democrats, she began reading political tracts at 14, and so—

'Big Deal'

"I can tell my grandchildren the first vote I ever cast was for me, for the Democratic County Committee. Big deal."

Now, the gimmick. Her camp had the idea, see, that if you knocked on doors and handed voters little bars of soap they would get the idea here was a gal who would clean up the city.

"When we got the darn soap," Rosalind said, "we knew why it was so cheap. It wasn't wrapped. We had visions of going from door to door handing out this soap, all sweaty from being held in your hand. Finally we put it in a cellophane wrapper, along with a 3 by 5-inch campaign card—they're the cheapest. It worked fine."

So what with gimmicks, and what with eight male candidates ignoring this upstart female, a political upset occurred.

Committee Of One

As for romance, normally not considered a by-product of politics:

"It's just like a fairy story. Gene heard me make a speech, and right away he said, 'There's a girl I'm going to marry.'"

By getting himself named a committee of one to act as an escort to another meeting at which Rosaland was speaking, he managed to meet the girl. And soon the political stump romance blossomed into marriage.

And why is she in Washington? It seems the federal government began—and then stopped—a storm sewer project in Los Angeles. Rosalind wants it started again.

'Lobbying'

"I guess," she said reflectively, "that I'm lobbying.

"I hope the Florida Chamber of Commerce doesn't notice this, but it does rain in California. Not often, you understand. But when it does rain, it rains good. Even cars are washed away."

She gathered up the maps, the papers and a piece of movie film she expected to show the committee.

"I never thought when I got into this job I'd get all stirred up about drainage. I even talk about sewage problems at women's teas.

"Gosh, you never know."

2 Put On Probation On Check Charge

Two Lincoln youths, ages 17 and 16, were placed on one year probation in Lancaster County Court for issuing a fraudulent check.

The two boys had pleaded guilty to issuing a $10 insufficient fund check April 26 with intent to defraud Winterhalters.

Chief Dep. Co. Atty. Dale Fahrnbruch had told the court that the bad check offense had involved a possible forgery charge.

Judge Herbert Ronin in suspending sentence and placing the youths on probation with Adult Probation Officer Gerorge Meyer imposed a 10 o'clock curfew and restitution as part of the probation terms.

The younger boy was on juvenile court probation when charged with the check offense.

Danforth Teacher Study Grant Goes To B. F. Richason

Benjamin F. Richason Jr., who is working for a doctoral degree in geography at the University of Nebraska and currently is assistant professor of geography and geology at Carroll College, Waukesha, Wis., was awarded a 1955 Danforth Teacher Study grant, it was announced.

He is one of 51 teachers selected by the Danforth Foundation of St. Louis from more than 500 nominations submitted from colleges and universities.

Richason will receive $3,000 plus his tuition and fees for a year of graduate study at the University of Nebraska. He began his work toward a doctorate at Nebraska after receiving his bachelor and master degrees from the University of Indiana.

He plans to begin his year's study at Nebraska in September. The Danforth Teacher Study grants were established to enable teachers to prepare themselves for increased services to their respective colleges.

Return Urged

PARIS (AP) — Former Premier Pierre Mendes-France, fighting to return to power, urged his Radical Socialist party to make itself a "party of the left."

"We want to avoid both communism and the popular front," he told a party convention, "but the best help to communism is a do-nothing policy."

Ellis Named Head Of Local Bank Institute

'Stranger's' Blood Stirs Wrangle In Sheppard Case

. . . Dr. Sam Seeks New Trial

CLEVELAND (AP)—An investigator's story of a stranger leaving a drop of blood at the murder scene stirred a wrangle Wednesday as Dr. Samuel H. Sheppard went into court to seek another trial.

After defense and prosecution attorneys had finished their clashing arguments, Common Pleas Judge Edward S. Blythin took under advisement a motion for a new trial, based on the defense's claim of new evidence.

A single splotch of blood was at the heart of the defense's demand. It was on a wardrobe door in the bedroom of Marilyn Sheppard, who was slain last July 4.

It was Blythin who sentenced Sheppard, 31, to life imprisonment after his conviction Dec. 21 in the slaying of his wife, then four months pregnant.

Private Probe

Attorneys for Sheppard based their claim on a 50-page affidavit submitted last week by Dr. Paul Kirk, a professor of criminalistics at the University of California. Kirk conducted a private investigation of the murder scene last January.

Backing up Sheppard's claim that a prowler murdered his wife, Kirk said the presence of a stranger was indicated by an analysis of a blood stain that came from neither of the Sheppards.

Distribution and shapes of other stains in the murder bedroom indicated the killer was left-handed, Dr. Kirk said in his affidavit. He also concluded the killer used a weapon which might have been a heavy flashlight, and was intent on a sexual attack. Sheppard is right-handed.

Asst. County Prosecutor Saul Danaceau hit Kirk's findings as "theorizing, interpretations, views and arguments," but not facts.

A Theory?

As chief defense counsel William J. Corrigan flailed his arms and shouted a recitation of Dr. Kirk's findings, Judge Blythin interrupted to ask:

"Is that evidence or is it theory?"

Growing red in the face, Corrigan replied:

"You have the evidence of a leading criminalist of the United States."

Then the white-haired attorney shouted:

"How are we going to eliminate the blood spot from the case?"

Heavy Sigh

Sheppard, seated with his attorneys, clapped his hand to his head and heaved a heavy sigh.

Garbed as usual in a blue suit, white shirt and dark tie, Sheppard listened intently to the arguments, wincing occasionally at references to his wife's murder.

The prosecution had submitted an affidavit from Dr. Roger W. Marsters of University Hospitals finding fault with the laboratory methods of Dr. Kirk and calling his conclusions "unwarranted."

Danaceau also challenged the "newness" of the material from Dr. Kirk and denied a defense assertion that investigators for the osteopath had been blocked from Sheppard's comfortable home in suburban Bay Village.

Utility Assessment Probe Considered

Chairman Bridenbaugh of Dakota City said Wednesday that the budget committee this week will consider the possibilities of an investigation of the methods used in assessing the property of railroads and other public utilities.

The revenue committee Tuesday recommended that the budget committee make an additional appropriation to the state tax commissioner's office for such an investigation.

Tax Commissioner Fred Herrington had informed certain members of the committee who had inquired about the fairness of methods used in assessing railroad property that an extensive study would be necessary in order to come up with an answer.

Sen. Bridenbaugh said Herrington probably will be called in to tell the committee what such an investigation would entail.

Herrington had indicated that the study probably would need the services of a tax expert for one year.

83rd Lobbyist Registers; Sets All-Time Record

An all-time record for lobbyists in one legislative session was reached Wednesday when the 83rd lobbyist registered with the secretary of state's office.

He is Emil Dobash, Sioux City, Ia., representing the Independent Truckers Assn. of the Midwest, Inc.

The previous high since records began to be kept under Nebraska's lobbyist law reached in 1953 when 82 Legislative representatives signed in.

Paul Halpine, lobbyist for the Nebraska Motor Carriers Assn., reported expenditures of $728 during April. His March report showed disbursements of $400.

Other April disbursement reports included C. Russell Lockwood, Nebraska Petroleum Industries Committee, $62.95, and James L. Morrison, Nebraska Telephone Assn., none.

Church Has Farewell Dinner For Pastor

The Rev. Lawrence L. Blevins (at left), pastor of Asbury Methodist Church, was honored at a farewell dinner attended by about 175 members and friends of the church. Mrs. Robert Alexander (at right), one of the oldest members present, and the Rev. C. F. Stark (center), pastor of the City Wide Gospel Tabernacle, 135 No. 24th, and a longtime friend of the Rev. Mr. Blevins, presented him a plaque and briefcase from Ladies Aid Circle 1 and a gift of money from the West Lincoln Community. The Rev. Mr. Blevins is completing his first assignment since graduation from theology school in 1946. His next assignment will be announced and his successor here named at the annual Methodist conference June 5. (Star Photo.)

Shippers Oppose Road Revenue Bill

The Nebraska Committee of Private Carriers, Processors and Distributors have issued a statement opposed to a highway revenue program recommended by the Legislature's revenue Committee.

The program recommended by the committee called for higher license fees on commercial and farm trucks plus a ton-mile tax on out of state truckers hauling more than 16 tons.

The Nebraska group of shippers issued a resolution saying:

1. That added trucking taxes are consumer taxes and only add to the cost of living of Nebraska families. The group is opposed to "hidden taxes" resulting from distribution cost increases that must be passed on to the consumer.

2. That this group is against the ton-mile or weight-distance principles.

3. That a public hearing be had on L.B. 519, the license fee increase measure. This bill originally called for increases on certain automobile fees.

4. That the state declare a current moratorium on highway revenues until Congress acts on its federal highway financing program. The group noted that a special session of the Legislature may be necessary after Congress acts.

Two other bills received final approval. The complete list:

LB 467, Perry, Tvrdik, Lee, increasing salaries of clerk and reporter of the Supreme Court and Revisor of Statutes, 38-1.

Red Jets Challenge Chiang's Planes First Time In Matsu Area

TAIPEI, Formosa (Thursday) (AP) — Communist jet fighters challenged Nationalist planes for the first time in the Matsu area, underscoring reports of an ominous Red air buildup on Formosa's approaches.

The Chinese air force said four MIG15s attacked four propeller planes which were on patrol off the coast 50 miles north of the Matsu Islands and about 150 miles north of Formosa.

A communique reported the four Nationalist planes — presumably single-seat fighters—returned undamaged. No damage to the MIGs was claimed.

Gunboats Hit

Other Nationalist planes attacked five small gunboats in Amoy harbor across Formosa Strait. The air force said one of the gunboats was set afire and two others were damaged. The gunboats were 300 to 400 tonners.

The big news, however, was the appearance so near Formosa of the fast Communist jet fighters of the type that fought in the Korean War.

It was possible they came from a new air base at Lukiao, described as the largest and best in all Red China. Lukiao is 200 miles north of the Matsus.

Planes 'Fled'

The air force said the air battle lasted two minutes.

The MIGs were dark blue and with the Red star on the wings. The air force said the Nationalist planes teamed in warding off the attackers who "fled" after a furious exchange.

The Interior Ministry's Tatao News Agency asserted the Red land and sea buildup was moving ahead steadily along the southeast coast, from the Quemoy area 175 miles northward to the Matsus.

Tatao, which claims underground contacts on the mainland, said the Communists were organizing "dare-to-die" units to lead attacks on the island outposts. Fast Red torpedo boats patrol the coast.

Strips Finished

Tatao said security measures were tightened around Foochow, river port 40 miles west of the Matsus where air strips are reported being finished.

Meanwhile, Foreign Minister George Yeh in an interview declared that his government "has never requested, nor has the United States government offered, ground forces to be stationed in Taiwan (Formosa)."

He denied that Premier O. K. Yui had told the Legislative Yuan (Parliament) Tuesday that "something spectacular" might be in the offing. One Taipei newspaper had published this. There was speculation this "something spectacular" might be the stationing of U. S. ground forces on Formosa.

Richards To Speak

ALMA, Neb. (AP)—William (Bill) Richards of Orleans, Neb., vice president of the National Association of Soil Conservation Districts, will be the speaker May 12 at the annual meeting of the South Platte United Chambers of Commerce.

Omaha Pilot's Skill Averts Air Crash

The flying skill of an Omaha reservist averted possible disaster at the U.S. naval air station here.

L. Martin Melia had just taken off on a routine training flight in a two-engined P2V patrol bomber when one of the engines burst into flames.

Melia banked the plane into a 180 degree turn and landed in a parallel runway. A spokesman at the air station said none of the three crew members were hurt and the plane sustained damage only to its nose wheel.

Engine failures on a takeoff can be "fairly crucial," the spokesman said.

With Melia on the flight were Lt. William Still, Omaha, a reservist undergoing monthly training with Melia, and aircraft mechanic Carroll Young, a member of the permanent party at the station.

Johnson Cashway Lumber Co. At 1820 R Has Grand Opening

Grand opening of the Johnson Cashway Lumber Co. of Lincoln will be Thursday, Friday and Saturday at the offices at 1820 R.

The Lincoln firm, one of the company's largest units in the nation, has one of the most modern showrooms in the midwest.

Ray W. Peterson, 3332 L, former manager of the Johnson Cashway yard in Grand Island, is general manager and vice president of the new Lincoln firm.

L. W. Johnson of Omaha is president.

The Lincoln company has purchased the Western Brick and Supply warehouse and inventory and erected a new, adjoining showroom.

Combined area of the warehouse and new showroom is 105 by 250 square feet. The showroom is 55 by 105 feet.

Western Brick and Supply continues in the masonry products, sand and gravel business and has an office at 1911 R.

Besides the Johnson Cashway Lumber Co. of Lincoln, a retail sales firm, Johnson Cashway has a lumber supply firm which is a wholesale outlet.

The first Johnson Cashway Lumber Yard was begun in 1931 at Hastings. In 1935 Yard 2 was started at Grand Island.

The first Omaha yard, primarily a farm yard, was opened in 1944 in the heart of the Omaha Stock Yards.

That yard is open until 2 a.m. so truckers and farmers can unload livestock at night and carry back loads of building materials without remaining in Omaha overnight.

An industrial yard opened in Omaha in 1945 is the largest lumber yard in the state, with a railroad spur running through the center of an 86 by 300 foot warehouse.

A yard opened by Johnson Cashway at Gering in 1950 was the most recent one in Nebraska before the Lincoln firm was started.

Each Johnson Cashway yard is identified by a 30-foot-tall pylon with "Good Lumber — Johnson Cashway" in neon lights.

The firm also has outlets at Council Bluffs, Ia., and South St. Paul and Austin, Minn., and has a Douglas fir sawmill near Eugene, Ore.

State Won't Drop Snake Water Plea

The State Department of Roads and Irrigation Wednesday ruled against a motion to deny the Ainsworth Irrigation District's application for water diversion from the Snake River.

The motion was made last month by a group of Cherry County ranchers who contended that the proposed project would constitute trans-watershed diversion, illegal in Nebraska.

Next step in the legal battle will be for the Cherry County group to file objections preliminary to a public hearing held by the irrigation Department.

However, it is expected that the controversy will eventually be settled by the State Supreme Court with a clarification of Nebraska's anti-water diversion statutes resulting from the case.

The Ainsworth application was made March 26, 1953, for the diversion of water from the Snake a tributary of the Niobrara River.

"We do not feel that it would be proper procedure for this Department to withdraw (the) application . . . from our files and return it to the Ainsworth Irrigation District at this time, and we are not complying with the request to do so. . . ," the order, signed by State Engineer L. N. Ress, said.

It added that the Cherry County group will be given ample time to file objections.

The Ainsworth application has been pending, awaiting an appropriation from Congress so that the Federal Bureau of Reclamation can construct a canal and distribution system for the project.

Rep. A. L. Miller (R-Neb) has introduced a bill calling for the appropriation in the current session of Congress.

The show, the first held here, is one of a series sponsored by the state Holstein-Freisian association.

The number of entries at the Chadron show was small.

Procedural Practice Study Is Authorized

The Legislature Wednesday authorized a study of procedural practices before state agencies and commissions.

The Legislative Council which makes the study is to recommend changes to the next session in the interest of more uniformity.

Methods of appeal from rulings of the various agencies will be considered.

Durocher's Shakeup Of Giant Squad Pays Off With Win In 11th Inning

NEW YORK, (AP)—Manager Leo Durocher's shakeup of the New York Giants lineup paid off in the 11th inning Wednesday with a 4-3 victory over the Chicago Cubs in a game marked by a notable collection of first performances.

★ ★ ★ ★

Whitey Lockman broke up the pitching duel between Ruben Gomez and rookie Sam Jones with a home run into the right field seats with one out in the 11th inning. This wasn't his first of the season, it was his third. But it brought Gomez his first victory of the season after two defeats.

In addition, Foster Castleman, who played second base and led off in the well-shaken batting order, hit his first major league homer. And Willie Mays, who had a generally miserable day, failed for the first time in his major league career to make one of his waist-high "basket" catches.

Willie, who fanned twice and saw Monte Irvin steal second on each strikeout, failed to catch Ernie Banks' easy fly in the eighth inning, but a double play a moment later reduced the penalty for the error.

It was the fifth game this season the Giants have won by a one-run margin. They haven's lost any that were so close.

Castleman, replacing Davey Williams who was troubled by a bad back, got his homer on a high fly to right field that hit the screen along side the foul pole in the third inning. That made it 2-0 for the Giants. The Cubs scored all three runs off Gomez in the fourth and New York tied it up again in the sixth.

The other two runs resulted directly from Irvin's steals. Monte, who was restored to the cleanup slot today, walked in the second inning and stole second as Mays fanned. Al Dark's single and an infield out brought him home. In the sixth he got the tying run on a single, another steal, a passed ball and Dark's double.

Post's Homers Beat Phillies

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — With Ted Kluszewski out temporarily because of an injured ankle, Wally Post took over the home run assignment Wednesday night as Cincinnati's Redlegs walloped the Philadelphia Phillies 7-3. Post hit his third and fourth homers of the campaign good for three runs.

Manager Birdie Tebbetts kept Ted on the bench because of a twisted ankle, sustained in a slide home in the fifth inning of Tuesday night's 7-5 Cincinnati win over the same Phillies. Bob Borkowski took over the first base chores.

Post hit his first homer tonight in the fourth inning after Catcher Smoky Burgess had singled. His second came with no one on base in the sixth.

Two walks and a Burgess single gave the Redlegs a one run lead in the first. Another walk, this one to starter Gerry Staley, and Borkowski's double brought in another run in the third inning.

A Johnny Temple single, a fielding error, plus singles by Ray Jablonski and Burgess scored two more Cincinnati tallies in the fifth.

The Phillies broke the scoring ice in the fourth with a single run.

Richie Ashburn doubled with two out in the fifth and scored on Torgeson's single. And in the sixth Marv Blaylock hit his first major league homer with the bases empty.

Brooks Whip Cards, 12-4

BROOKLYN (AP) — Home runs by Gil Hodges, Duke Snider and Roy Campanella backed up the clutch pitching of Johnny Podres Wednesday night to give the Brooklyn Dodgers a 12-4 victory over the St. Louis Cardinals at Ebbets Field. It was the sixth straight triumph and the 17th in 19 games for the red-hot National League leaders.

Hodges drove one into the lower left field stands in the second inning, with no one on base, for his third home run of the season. Snider's seventh homer was a towering three-run blow over the right field screen in the third and Campanella parked one in the left field stands in the eighth, scoring Pee Wee Reese and Duke Snider ahead of him. It was Campy's fifth.

The Dodger attack made it easy for pitcher Johnny Podres, who found himself often in tight spots but managed to last out the game for his second victory of the season.

He started the game by striking out the side in the first inning but went on to give up nine hits, serving up a pair of home run balls himself.

Giving Them Fitz

By Bill Fitzgerald

Brown Went Over Big

A fellow in the grandstand at the University baseball park Monday was telling his friend that Don Brown of the current Huskers looks like the best hitter to reach the school since Bob Cerv stopped swinging for the Scarlet and the Cream and began doing it for paychecks.

He said he liked the way the third baseman from Waterloo, Ia., choked deeply on the bat and swung smoothly into the ball.

Don Brown

Brown had just connected with a pitch from Oklahoma lefthander, Mac Sanders, and the ball had sailed about 365 feet over the left-center field snow fence.

It was the third ime this spring Brown had put the ball out of the park. He was to repeat the accomplishment the next day against the Sooners.

Cerv, the big shoulders from the the Saunders County hamlet of Weston, used the left center and dead center fences for his mighty clouts off Big Seven pitchers. He drove the ball deeper than that homer which Brown hit Monday, but he never hit more than six durin a college spring and that figure could be surpassed by Brown before this season is in the books.

Brown is about six years younger than Cerv was at the time of his graduation in 1950. He doesn't have the big fellow's size, but he's got that big average and he hits the long ball consistently.

A graduate of Omaha Benson High, Brown stands as one of two Benson ball players now in the sports light.

The other is John Brandt, centerfielder for the Rochester club of the International League. Brandt closed the season with Omaha last season and was labeled by one wise baseball man as a hitter who cannot miss in the majors.

Players who enter the Early-bird Open, a golf tournament at Nebraska City this Sunday, will find the course in its best condition in years.

The recent rain lifted the fairways and greens to that verdant peak which the golfer admires.

Play will start at 8:30 a.m. A championship flight and probably three lower flights will be staged.

It brought a smile to the faces of spectato s in a Nebraska gymnasium when the youthful Golden Gloves fight manager who had broken most of the rules himself told one of his fighters that only the clean livers win.

The fellow who had managed the retired fighter during the guy's wild days quipped from ringside: "Listen to this guy, kid. If anybody knows about living, it must be him."

Pirates Edge Braves, 5-4

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The Pittsburgh Pirates, well on their way to becoming the "Nuisance Kids" of the National League, edged the Milwaukee Braves 5-4 Wednesday night for their fourth consecutive victory.

The Braves almost pulled the game out of the fire in the ninth, scoring one run. A sensational catch by rookie Roberto Clemente saved the day. Clemente leaping high in front of the right field stands to take Goerge Crowe's long drive. The play came with Andy Pafko on third and Hank Aaron on second with two men out.

Crafty Maxie Surkont was credited with his second win against three defeats although relieved by Bob Friend in the ninth after giving up an infield single and a walk with one away. Friend got one man on a force but gave up a single to Aaron. Clemente then threw wild, putting Braves on second and third. Then Crowe made his bid to win the game but Clemente more than made up for his error.

HANS SCHMIDT

Gagne-Schmidt Fight Signed

Professor Adam Krieger Wednesday announced the booking of a wrestling match he says he has sought for three years.

The Lincoln promoter broke the release of the final match of the local season — a clash between champion Verne Gagne and the notorious Hans Schmidt.

Krieger will stage the match at the Fairgrounds next Wednesday, May 11.

Krieger stated that the limited seating capacity of the Arena had handicapped his previous efforts to attract the Gagne-Schmidt rivalry to Lincoln. The two noted wrestlers have packed some of the big auditoriums of the country with their wild matches.

The Lincoln promoter explained he wants to close the local season with the best show obtainable and that the Gagne-Schmidt match is the perfect answer to his wish.

Two other bouts will be tossed in.

Omaha Takes Full Game Lead In AA

From Press Dispatches

Omaha widened its lead in the American Association standings to a full game Wednesday night with a 4-0 shutout of seventh-place Indianapolis.

Minneapolis, defeated by Charleston 4-2, dropped into a second-place tie with Louisville, 7-4 winner over cellar-dweller Denver, one game back of the leading Cardinals.

In the other AA game, St. Paul edged Toledo, 6-5.

Omaha's Stu Miller limited Indianapolis to four hits in racking up the shutout. Mozzali homered for the winners in the sixth with one mate aboard.

Rodemoyer was the starter and the loser for Indianapolis.

Lincoln Defeated By 6-2

By DON BRYANT
Sports Editor, The Star

Colorado Springs stretched its slim Western League lead slightly Wednesday night, handing the Lincoln Chiefs a 6-2 loss at Sherman Field.

The defeat drops the third-place Chiefs one game back of the Sky Sox, but the Burwellmen get another crack at the leaders Thursday night, which will be Family Night at Shermantown.

Righthander Dick Hall, who is yet to post a record, will hurl for the Chiefs against the Sky Sox' Gar Brill, who stands two and zero.

Jackie Brown, the Lincoln fireballer failed in his third attempt to win Wednednesday night. His control was improved — he struck out six and walked only two — but the Sky Sox picked out eight of his tosses for hits, including a two-run home run.

It was the pitching of Jack Pickart and Ron Cooper's bat that kayoed the Chiefs. Pickart, in winning his first game, allowed only four hits, while Cooper drove in all six of the Sky Sox runs.

Cooper's first time up — in the second — provided Colorado Springs with a two-run lead. After Dick Lombardi had been hit by one of Brown's fast balls, Cooper unloaded over the rightfield fence.

So loud was the crack of Cooper's bat, Andy Anderson in right didn't even turn around. He just stood there with his hands on his hips as the ball departed.

Three more Sky Sox runs came in the third. Two singles, an error and Cooper's double did the damage.

Cooper again turned the trick in the eighth. After Lombardi had doubled and taken third on a wild pitch, the big rightfielder singled to right for the final tally.

Lincoln never threatened. Frank Rice's double, a fielder's choice and an error in the third netted one run, and the Chiefs added another in the fourth.

Warren Goodrich singled, moved to second when Adkins grounded out and came home on Anderson's sharp single to right.

Then Pickart bore down and set the Chiefs down in order in the fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth. He had a good start in the ninth—two down—when Adkins dumped center, but Anderson grounded a bloop single into shallow right out to first to end the game.

Adkin's tap stretched his hitting string to 10 straight games.

Smoke Signals . . . It was dangerous working on the diamond Wednesday night. Lombardi got a nasty crack on the elbow when he was hit by Brown's pitch and fielded a foul tip in the midsection. Pickart narrowly escaped injury when Goodrich lined a single right between his legs. . . . The Chiefs are offering a bargain for the whole family tonight. . . . Friday night will be College Night at Sherman Field. . . By mutual agreement no inning of tonight's game will start after 11 p.m. The Sky Sox have to catch a train. . . .

Confusion At Home

Staggered Sugar Ray Recovers For Win Over Garth Panter

DETROIT (AP) — Sugar Ray Robinson, staggered in the first round, recovered and was in complete command the rest of the way Wednesday in punching out a unanimous 10-round decision over Garth Panter of Salt Lake City.

Robinson weighed 163¼ and Panter 161¼ for the non-televised bout before 4,673 customers in Olympia Stadium.

There were no knockdowns, although both fighters were rocked by right hands to the head.

In the first minute of the fight, Panter, a 24-year-old father of five children, surprised Robinson with a stinging right to the head. Robinson wobbled for a moment and regained his balance by clutching the middle strand of the ropes.

From then on, however, the sleek New Yorker had pracically no trouble in recording the fourth victory in five starts in a comeback campaign which he hopes will eventually lead to a title shot against middleweight champion Bobo Olson.

The officials were firmly convinced of Robinson's superiority. Referee Lou Jallos scored it 100-77 for the former middle and welterweight champion, while Judge Bill Appleton also had it 100-77 and Judge Al Goodman 99-81.

The Associated Press score card agreed with Goodman.

Robinson was strictly a slugger in the second and third rounds. In the second, he concentrated his attack to Panter's midsection, then shifted to Panter's head in the third. These were Robinson's best rounds.

The pace slowed considerably from the fourth through the seventh. But Robinson opened up in the eighth and fired home a half dozen solid uppercuts every time Panter moved in.

It was Panter's seventh loss in his last eight fights.

The crowd paid a gross gate of $8,996.80. Robinson's share was 40 per cent.

Yankees Rally To Defeat Lemon, Cleveland By 11-5

CLEVELAND (AP) — The New York Yankees rallied for seven runs in the last two innings to defeat the Cleveland Indians 11-5 Wednesday night, spoiling Bob Lemon's bid for his sixth straight pitching victory and ending the Tribe's five- game winning string.

The Yankees chased Lemon, who had won his first five starts, in the eighth inning when they scored four runs on three singles and three walks. When Lemon walked Gil McDougald with the bases full, he was replaced on the mound by Ray Narleski. Phil Rizzuto singled off Narleski, scoring two more.

The Yankees added three more in the ninth on a homer by Hank Bauer, his fifth of the season, two singles, a walk and a wild pitch.

Yogi Berra homered for the Yanks in the third inning, and Dave Pope hit a two-run homer in the second for the Indians.

Lemon was tagged for three runs in the first inning on singles by Bauer, Berra and Joe Collins, a walk to Mickey Mantle and a wild pitch.

A's Saved By Gorman Again

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Relief pitcher Tom Gorman saved the Kansas City Athletics another game Wednesday with a scoreless three-inning stint as the A's defeated Baltimore, 6-2.

Gus Zernial's home run in the fifth was the winning margin.

The victory, which went to Gorman, was the seventh in the last nine for the amazing A's. And it was the second straight day Gorman had gone in to thwart an Oriole rally in the late innings. He stopped them short Tuesday night with the tying run on base in the ninth.

The A's pounded out nine hits against three Baltimore pitchers. Harry Byrd, the starter and loser gave up eight of the hits and five runs as the A's scored in each of the first five innings. Jim McDonald and Ray Moore finished up.

Bosox Score Over Detroit

DETROIT (AP) — Temperamental Willard Nixon snapped the Boston Red Sox' six game losing streak as he pitched them to a 3-2 decision over Detroit Wednesday night in an 11-inning duel with the Tigers' Frank Lary.

The setback cost the second place Tigers a chance to take over first place in the American League as league-leading Cleveland bowed to New York 11-5 tonight. The Indians thus clung to their half-game lead.

Nixon, who had a 5-1 record against Detroit last year, took up where he left off in the 1954 season as he silenced the Tigers' home run guns. He gave up seven singles and a double.

Chisox Edged By Senators

CHICAGO (AP) — Mickey Vernon of Washington and Bob Nieman of Chicago exchanged the Senators stood off a ninth-inning threat to shade the White Sox 5-4.

The Senators moved into the ninth with a 5-4 lead behind Bob Porterfield's steady pitching, but the Washington ace weakened and left it up to Chuck Stobbs to mow down the Sox with two men on and one out.

It was Porterfield's third victory against three defeats.

Vernon and Nieman both poled their homers in the third. Nieman also singled across a fourth run in the eighth to overhaul Vernon in the American League RBI race at 23.

Porterfield gave seven hits, holding the Sox hitless from Nieman's homer in the third after singles by Nellie Fox and Minnie Minoso in the third, until Fox' double in the eighth.

Sox starter Jack Harshman yielded a bases-empty homer by Jim Busby in the second and Vernon's No. 5 circuit wallop after singles by Eddie Yost and Ed Fitzgerald in the third for his second defeat against two victories.

Rocky Floored By Spar Mate

CALISTOGA, Calif. (AP) — A sparring mate wearing 16 ounce training gloves floored heavyweight champion Rocky Marciano Wednesday night with a left hook to the jaw.

Toxie Hall of Chicago, a 200 pounder who has worked with Marciano a year and a half, landed the hook squarely on Marciano's chin, reported Ben Bentley, publicist at Marciano's camp.

"Rocky dropped to the canvas for a few brief seconds and quickly jumped to his feet," Bentley's report said. Five British writers visiting Rocky's camp witnessed the knockdown.

Marciano fights Don Cockell, British challenger, in a title match in Kezar Stadium May 16.

"You saw what happened—I got hit," Marciano told the British writers in his dressing room. Bentley said Marciano made no excuses and did not claim he had slipped.

Marciano has been knocked off his feet only once before. Jersey Joe Walcott put him down for a four count with a left hook in the first round of their title fight Sept. 23, 1952. Walcott, of course, wore six-ounce fighting gloves.

Patty Berg On Golf:

No. 9 Iron Best For 'Pitch-And-Run'

By PATTY BERG
(13th of a Series)

The average player is troubled by the small chip shot called for when the ball lies a few feet from the putting surface.

Often this type of shot is referred to as a "pitch and run." For the idea is to pitch the ball low and let it run the rest of the way to the hole. A pitch and run shot should be used when there are no hazards, such as a trap, between you and the hole.

The No. 9 iron or a wedge is probably the average player's best choice for this shot. Your 9-iron enables you to loft the ball slightly. Aim for a spot on the green, and allow the ball to run to the hole.

Use the overlapping grip for a pitch-and-run shot, gripping the club two or three inches down the shaft. This will shorten your backswing. A short chip — or pitch-and-run shot does not require a full swing.

A very narrow stance is required for this shot, since there is little pivot or foot action in executing it.

Use an open stance which is formed by drawing the left foot back from the line of flight. Your weight is fairly distributed with emphasis on the left foot, to enable you to hit the ball first and take a little turf afterward.

Your hands and arms are close in toward your body during this shot. Your hands should be slightly ahead of the ball at the address.

Shortening the grip makes you naturally stand closer to the ball at the address and throughout the swing. You may stand as close to the ball as is comfortable for you and still maintain your ballance throughout the stroke.

As you assume your stance, look at the hole and get a mental picture of the spot on the green in which you wish the ball to hit.

(Copyright General Features Corp.)

Hands Ahead Of The Ball

Use an open stance with the feet close together for a chip or pitch-and-run shot. Hands are ahead of the ball at the address and the club is gripped about two or three inches down the shaft.

Anglers Warned

Lincoln anglers Wednesday were reminded that it is illegal for sportsmen to catch game fish by any means but hook and line.

The warning came after reports that spawning buffalo fish in the west lake at Oak Creek Park were thrashing about near the shore and were being caught by hand, kicked out on the bank or speared.

Hooks and lines must be used to catch the 25-30 pound fish legally.

Here is a pleasant little game that will give you a message every day. It is a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune. Count the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6, add three. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left-hand corner of the rectangle and check every one of your key numbers, left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures give you.

Herbie Hoover and Barney Baruch have both been guest conductors of the Q. and A. congressional philharmonic.

Both came off with running colors. Each required a full day to march past a disputed point.

We use the profit system in this wonderful country. What profiteth a man if he gaineth the world and loseth the export trade?

Herbie and Barney figured it this way: You can keep the government out of business but not out of yours.

One letter simply stands for another. In this example A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophes, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

N.Y. Stock Market Closes Slightly Up

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market wavered Wednesday between a lower and a higher trend, but at the close it was slightly higher.

Most price changes were quite narrow, but the range ran from around $3 lower to $2 higher.

Several major divisions changed their direction with disconcerting frequency.

That included the steels, which closed mixed after showing a higher tendency; aircrafts, which ended higher after shaking off some early pressure; and the coppers, which started higher, swung down, then closed higher.

Brokers were inclined to write off the day as one of consolidation after Tuesday's sharp fall.

The Associated Press average of 50 stocks Wednesday gained 20 cents. It was down $1.80 Tuesday

All three components of the average were up 20 cents each.

Volume was moderate at 2,200,000 shares. That compares with 2,630,000 shares traded Tuesday.

The American Stock Exchange was mixed on volume of 650,000 shares.

Tuesday's business amounted to 730,000 shares.
